PRESIDENT WILSON EMPHASIZES TO COUNT VON BERNSTORFF THE POSITION OF U. S. GOVERNMENT

Will Insist on Adherence of Germany to the International Laws.

NO CHANGE IN PLANS

President and Ambassador Discussed Fundamentals and Not Details.

German Official Feels More Hopeful, Now.

Washington, June 1. — President Wilson emphasized in an informal talk with Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, today the intense feeling of the American people over the sinking of the Lusitania and other violations of American rights on the high seas, and impressed him that the United States would insist on an adherence of Germany to the accepted principles of international law as they affect neutrals.

No Announcements Made.

No announcements were made after the conference which had been arranged at the Ambassador's request, but it was stated authoritatively that there would be no change in the plan to send in response to the German reply to the Lusitania note an inquiry to ascertain definitely whether the imperial government will abide by international law or follow its own rule of maritime warfare.

The note which is being written by President Wilson, will be despatched before the end of the week.

In 20 minutes' conversation, the President and the ambassador exchanged views on the delicate situation which has arisen in the relations between the United States and Germany. Their meeting was cordial, their conversation friendly and they discussed fundamentals and not details. Count Von Bernstorff later told friends that the interview had been satisfactory and that the President has spoken clearly and frankly. The ambassador felt hopeful when he returned to his embassy. He believed the report which he prepared for transmission to Berlin would enlighten the German foreign office on the true state of the American government's opinion and pave the way to a better understanding.

Opinion is Divided.

In official and diplomatic quarters opinion was divided as to the effect of the conference. Some thought it would be beneficial and bring from Germany a conciliatory reply to the next American communication. Others pointed out that the German ambassador similarly was hopeful when President Wilson's note of May 13 was dispatched, and that he recommended several methods to the German foreign office for meeting the position satisfactorily. It is an open secret in diplomatic quarters, however, that the ambassador's suggestions were not followed then and speculation was widespread as to what influence his communication of today—expressing as it did the viewpoint of the President himself—might have on his government.

In view of the difficulties which the embassy has experienced in communicating with Berlin on account of the cutting of cables, it is understood the President granted a request of the ambassador that the United States assist him in transmitting his messages concerning the delicate situation that has arisen. The ambassador's report of his talk with the President will be sent in code through the State Department and will be delivered by Ambassador Gerard.

The conference at the White House was the outstanding development of the day in the international situation. The President is understood to have explained the American government's position, and to have reiterated that it was based on legality. It is believed the ambassador was told that if the German government could conduct its submarine warfare in accordance with the dictates of humanity, in a way that would not endanger the lives and property of neutrals, there would be no objection to the use of underwater craft as a commerce destroyer. The exercise of the right of visit and search, however, the President is said to have explained, would be insisted on when submarines encounter unarmed merchant men or vessels who do not resist capture.

May Bring Results.

In some well informed quarters the conference was discussed as likely to lead to important results with respect to the general situation. While the President, it is believed, in adherence to his expressed policy, would not talk of the relations of this country with Great Britain to the German ambassador the possibility that a return to international law, by all the belligerents might eventually be accomplished by the efforts of the United States and thus pave the way for the eventual restoration of peace in Europe, was a suggestion widely current.

In German quarters tonight optimism was apparent.

The view was expressed that the German reply did not purport to be a full answer to the American demands and that if the United States in its next note state that official investigation showed that the Lusitania carried

...YS IN GRAY SEND WILSON ...REETINGS: GENERAL YOUNG STILL COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF

Glad That We Have President Strictly Neutral in Wars Between Nations and With Courage to Demand Proper Respect for American Flag—Birmingham Selected as Next Reunion City—Rain Interferes.

Richmond, Va., June 2.—Veterans of the Confederacy in reunion here today sent the following greeting, in the form of a unanimously approved resolution to the President of the United States:

"The United Confederate Veterans in 25th annual reunion assembled at Richmond, Va., send greetings to Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States. As soldiers who know only too well the horrors of war, and as citizens of a re-united country, we are glad at heart that we have at Washington a President, who strictly neutral between warring nations, will with wisdom and courage stand for all regard and respect for the honor of the American flag and a proper observance of the full rights of the humble American citizen."

The resolution was adopted toward the close of the business session of the reunion. Its reading was received with tumultuous applause by Veterans who wear the uniform of gray, and who later cheered the name of the President again when Congressman Heflin, of Alabama, declared that the defenders of the South had been "spared to see a man, born in the Southland, the son of a Confederate soldier, the President of the United States."

General Young Re-Elected.

The reunion re-elected as commander-in-chief General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky., after a spirited contest, his opponent for the honor being General Felix H. Robertson, of Crawford, Texas. Birmingham, Ala., was designated as the reunion city in 1916. Prior to the election the delegates directed that a message of sympathy be sent to General Young, who was kept away by illness and had gone to his home in Louisville from Cleveland, O.

In pursuance of this direction, Adjutant General William E. Mickle sent the following telegram to General Young:

"The convention heard with joy the announcement of your improved condition, and directed me to express the great sympathy felt at your confinement which caused your absence, and the hope of your speedy recovery."

Rain which fell in torrents throughout the day seriously interfered with the programme of events for the reunion and aroused anxiety for hundreds of the aged veterans encamped at the fair grounds. A fireworks display scheduled for tonight at the Veterans Camp had to be postponed until tomorrow night and a floral parade which was to have occurred today will be held tomorrow after the military parade and laying of the corner stone of a monument to General Stonewall Jackson. At Camp Henry C. Stuart, where 5,000 veterans are quartered unusual precautions were taken. Hundreds, however, were compelled to remain within the fair grounds buildings because of the incessant downpour which has prevailed since Monday night.

Climax Comes Today.

Despite the inclemency of the weather, however, preparations continue for the climatic events of the reunion tomorrow. The military parade will be held at 11 o'clock. The Virginia militia arrived today to participate in the parade. There also arrived Governor Marcus H. Holcomb, of Connecticut, and the first company, Governor's footguards, crack military organization of the New England states, who will take part in the parade. The Connecticut guards were met by the Richmond Light Infantry Blues whose guests they will be while in Richmond.

Late today the United States marine band gave a concert in honor of Mary Curtis Lee, daughter of General Robert E. Lee, and Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, president of the Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, and on the staff of Mrs. Stevens, arranged the concert and congratulated the leader of the band in the presence of an enthusiastic throng.

One of the features of the day was the presentation to the convention of Miss Anne Carter Lee, granddaughter of General Robert E. Lee as the sponsor of the South. She was accompanied by Miss Sarah Morris Leech and Miss Ollie McLaurin, maids of honor, and chaperoned by Mrs. Mary Ewell Pitcher.

Carr Brings Wild Applause.

The sponsor was presented by Acting Commander-in-Chief George P. Harrison, and was greeted with a deafening outburst of applause. The incident kindled enthusiasm for the old Confederacy which culminated in repeated rebel yells when General Lee was pronounced by General Julian S. Carr, of North Carolina, as "the world's greatest hero." It was Lee Day at the convention.

General Carr brought the Veterans repeatedly to their feet with a eulogy of the Confederacy.

"Not so long ago," said General Carr, "there were many of the North to deem us traitors, and 'Southern treason' was the campaign cry of those who marched under the folds of the 'bloody shirt.' We are yet stigmatized as rebels by some of our loyal compatriots. To the latter epithet the South has no very particular objections. During the Christian era, the three grandest names in political history are Alfred the Great, William the Silent and George Washington.

"Technically the first of this important trio was a rebel. Actually and legally the last two were rebels, and the last named, greatest and grandest of them all, was a Southerner and a slave-holder.

Glad to be Called Rebel.

"The Confederate soldier is perfectly willing to accept association with these demi-gods and cordially adopts the classification and we do it with more pride and alacrity when we reinforce them and incalculably augment their glory by adding to their number the Militades of the Nineteenth Century—the world's greatest hero—Robert E. Lee, whom the South, to remotest generations, will ever esteem the noblest personality mentioned in all profane history."

The convention approved of a committee appointed at the last convention to award credit for designing the

BATTLE BEFORE PRZEMYSL IS ONE OF MOST STUBBORN AND SANGUINARY OF WAR

Both Sides Have Poured Reinforcements Into the Field and Losses Are Piling Up to an Unprecedented Extent—Germans Making Another Effort to Reach Warsaw.

London, June 2. — The battle before Przemysl, one of the most stubborn and sanguinary struggles of the war, continues with unabated fury. Both sides have poured reinforcements into the field, and losses are piling up to an unprecedented extent.

The Germans and Austrians claim that some of the forts on the northern front have fallen and that on the southeastern front their troops are progressing towards the railway that joins the fortress with Lemberg. But the latest Petrograd communication says the Germans who got into one fort were driven out and makes no mention of the capture of Stry or of other successes claimed by the Teutonic allies.

To the southeast, simultaneously with this battle, the Germans are making another effort to break through the Bzura lines toward Warsaw, but whether this is a serious attempt to capture the Polish capital or only a diversion to prevent the Russians from sending more reinforcements into Galicia, is not disclosed.

The Germans claim to have captured upwards of 300,000 Russians and an immense amount of material during the month of May. Despite this, the Russians do not appear to have slackened their resistance.

On the Gallipoli peninsula the British and French lines have been subjected to severe attacks by the Turks, all of which, according to a British official report, have been repulsed. There, as in France, trench warfare is being followed, but in this case the Allies have the support of their fleet, which searches the Turkish trenches and prevents the Turks from coming out into the open. It also supports the Allies' attacks.

In France, the most important fighting is north of Arras, where the Germans and French are contending for possession of the sugar refinery at Souches, which both claim to hold, and on the outskirts of Le Preire forest, where the battle for the trenches has been continuous for weeks.

The latest victim of the German submarines is the British liner Saidieh, sunk in the North Sea with seven of her crew.

CHEERED TO THE ECHO BY CONFEDERATE VETS

Five thousand grizzled veterans, the remnant of Lee's followers, in the historic "Rebel Yell" yesterday voiced approval of every word uttered by General Julian S. Carr, of North Carolina, when he delivered his "Eulogy of the Confederacy" at the Reunion at Richmond. General Carr pronounced Robert E. Lee "the world's greatest hero."

UNIVERSITY HEARS MITCHELL PALMER

Confers Honorary Degree on Mr. James Sprunt.

CRAIG AND SIMMONS

Judge Palmer Speaks on "Some Political Ideals," Featuring Last Day of Commencement—Governor Addresses Class.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., June 2.—The address of Judge A. Mitchell Palmer featured the exercises of the concluding events of the 120th commencement of the University of North Carolina today. His subject was "Some Political Ideals." He extolled the advent of the scholar and the idealist in American politics and attributed to their efforts the movement for better working conditions for labor, adoption of corrupt practices acts, control of liquor traffic, and the disintegration or supervision of monopolies. He declared that the scholar was the idealist in action.

The other outstanding event on the program of Commencement day was the conferring of the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws on three distinguished North Carolinians, Mr. James Sprunt, cotton exporter and business man of Wilmington; Governor Locke Craig, and Senator Furnifold M. Simmons. Dr. Charles Lee Raper, dean of the graduate school, performed the ceremonies incident to the conferring of the degrees.

The University awarded 133 diplomas all told. The senior class proper consisted of only 85 members. The other degrees conferred were bachelor of laws, 10; graduates in pharmacy, 9; pharmaceutical chemistry, 1; doctors of pharmacy 3; masters of arts and masters of science, 23; doctors of philosophy, 2. The degrees of doctor of philosophy were conferred on William L. Jeffreys, an instructor in chemistry, and Victor L. Edwards, a graduate student in chemistry.

The Mangum medal, awarded each year to that senior displaying the best ability as an orator, was voted Claud B. Woltz, of Dodson. The Bingham medal, given for excellency in debate, was awarded Samuel C. Pike, of Trinity. The McNeill prize, voted to that student writing the best paper of the Sand Hill section of North Carolina went to B. B. Holder, of Candor.

Three young ladies received degrees at this commencement. Miss Rachel Lynch and Miss Alma Stone, both of Chapel Hill, were presented with degrees of bachelor of arts. Miss Margaret Berry, of Chapel Hill, was presented with the degree of bachelor of laws.

The graduating exercises were conducted in Memorial hall. The time-honored custom of a processional march from Alumni building to Memorial hall was abandoned on account of the downpour of rain that prevailed all the forenoon.

The music was furnished by Don Richardson's orchestra, of New York City. This orchestra held forth at Wilmington last summer and will again tour the State next October.

Governor Locke Craig made the address to the graduating class. He called the young collegians to a life of duty and responsibility to home and State, informing them that the great acts of humanity have not been actuated by selfish purposes or hope of personal reward.

Judge Palmer's Address.

The subject of Judge Palmer's address was "Some Political Ideals." Declaring that "the spotlight now reveals the idealist in politics," Judge Palmer proceeded to review the past when the scholar was content to allow the man who had a mind for business to employ it in the business of the government. The happiness of the masses was of little concern to the scholar; his own happiness was in the wealth of science, art and literature.

The results of the non-participation of the scholar were inevitable. The common welfare suffered in the granting of special privileges. Men devoted to the accumulation of wealth found in the unwatchfulness of the scholar the opportunity to exploit the people

MEXICAN FACTIONS CALLED UPON BY PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON TO SETTLE THEIR DIFFERENCES

HUERTA SAYS NEW MEXICAN POLICY IS GREAT MISTAKE VILLA AGENCY IS PLEASED

Former Mexican Dictator Gives Out Statement in New York Concerning Message to Factional Leaders From President Wilson—Comments by Officials of All Factions on Presidential Communication.

New York, June 2.—General Victoriano Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, after he had been shown President Wilson's note regarding the situation in Mexico today, through A. Z. Ratder, in whose offices at No. 61 Broadway he makes his headquarters, issued the following signed statement:

"As a foreigner, enjoying the hospitality of a foreign country, I should not criticise nor even discuss statements of the government or officers of the foreign country I live in. But I may say this:

"Any foreign country that is sincere and honest in its endeavor to help our nation would commit the biggest blunder by giving its moral support or assistance to any person or faction.

"Such actions, instead of bringing the results desired, would result in the opposite direction.

"The Mexican nation, as a whole, will never accept any such party even if it would only be suspected that that party received any help from a foreign country.

Will Not Stand for It.

"Our people will never stand for any government inspired by foreigners no matter how humanitarian or noble the motives of such foreign nations appear to be."

General Villa's representative in New York city, Francisco Urquidi, said he was much pleased with President Wilson's new Mexican policy.

"That is fine," Senor Uruquidi said after reading the President's pronouncement to the Mexican leaders. "That is just what we expected from President Wilson. To be perfectly frank, I might say that we—the Villa people—have tried, on more than one occasion, to do just what President Wilson has suggested. Mr. Carranza, however, is a very hard hearted man."

The military mastery of Mexico, Senor Uruquidi said, would depend much on a great battle now being waged around Leon, northwest of Mexico City. This battle between Carranza and Villa troops, he said, had been in progress for eight days.

VILLA AGENCY PLEASED

Statement Given Out at Washington Says Villa Will Listen to Message.

Washington, June 2.—After reading President Wilson's statement Enrique Llorente, head of the Villa agency here, issued the following:

"The convention government of whose military forces General Villa is commander-in-chief was created in the very spirit in which President Wilson's declaration was written; but unfortunately many of those who have undertaken to support and maintain that government failed in adherence to their pledges. Since then General Villa on numerous occasions has signified a desire to reach an accord with those who are opposing him, even expressing a willingness to entirely eliminate himself from the situation, should occasion seem so to demand.

"General Villa certainly will give the most serious, attention and practical consideration to any friendly suggestion reaching him from President Wilson whose unselfishness of purpose he well understands and fully appreciates."

SIX AMERICANS WERE KILLED

Captain on Vessel Just From Tampico —Fears General Massacre.

Houston, Texas, June 2.—Captain Oscar Lane, of the steamer Winifred, from Tampico, which docked here today, says he "positively knows of six American citizens who were killed near Tampico in the last few days."

Four, he said, were assassinated from the river bank, while in boats and two were shot in a pumping plant. John Smith, an engineer for the East Coast Oil Company, he said, was assassinated in a row boat last Saturday. He added that he feared a general uprising and massacre of Americans in or near the Panuco Oil fields.

HAS NO RIGHT TO INTERFERE

Villa Consul at El Paso Briefly Refers to Wilson's Communication.

El Paso, Texas, June 2.—Francisco McManus, Villa consul at El Paso, made the following statement relative to President Wilson's note:

"Except to emphatically state that I do not in any way recognize the right of the United States to interfere in the domestic affairs of Mexico, I have no statement at this time to make regarding the Wilson note.

"I can add, however, that foreigners and Mexicans alike, who have gone about their legitimate pursuits in territory controlled by General Villa, have received protection."

NOTE "VERY UNFORTUNATE."

Is the Idea of Prominent Mexican at New Orleans—Cause Reaction.

New Orleans, June 2. — Heriberto Barron, widely known Mexican attorney and founder of the Mexican democratic party, who recently came to New Orleans on a special mission for General Carranza, in a statement tonight commenting on the warning of President Wilson, said he considered the issuance of the note "very unfortunate." Mr. Barron declared it would complicate the Mexican situation by encouraging "reactionaries and conspirators," and that it might delay restoriation of peace.

PLANS TO CONTINUE WORK OF CONFERENCE

For Better Relations of All Kinds in the Americas.

Washington, June 2. — Plans to continue the work begun by the recent Pan-American Financial Conference through permanent, although unofficial, committees were announced today in a statement by Secretary McAdoo of the Treasury. The Secretary expressed confidence that "practical results of the most advantageous sort to the United States and all the countries of South and Central America, would follow the conference.

If Not, United States Will "Decide What Means Should be Employed."

TO BRING ABOUT PEACE

Declares This Government Does Not Want Anything for Itself.

But Would Save Mexico from Devastation.

Washington, June 2.—President Wilson, in the name of the United States government, today publicly called on all factions in Mexico "to accommodate their differences" and set up a government that can be accorded recognition.

Failure to unite in a movement to bring peace to Mexico, "within a short time," it was announced in a statement telegraphed to Generals Carranza, Villa, Zapata and others, would constrain the United States to "decide what means should be employed" to save the people of the southern republic from further devastations of internal warfare.

Everywhere—in official and diplomatic quarters and among Mexicans of varied leaning—the statement was interpreted as meaning that the United States would bring pressure to bear first to unite the factions in the choice of a provisional president, and failing to bring all elements together, would give its active support to those elements which did agree.

Ultimate intervention was considered possible but only if a hopeless condition of anarchy followed with no remedy from within the republic.

President's Statement.

The President's statement is as follows:

"For more than two years revolutionary conditions have existed in Mexico. The purpose of the revolution was to rid Mexico of men who ignored the constitution of the republic and used their power in contempt of the right of its people; and with these purposes the people of the United States instinctively and generously sympathized. But the leaders of the revolution, in the very hour of their success, have disagreed, and turned their arms against one another.

"All professing the same objects they are nevertheless unable or unwilling to co-operate. A central authority at Mexico City is no sooner set up than it is undermined and its authority denied by those who are expected to support it.

Mexico is apparently no nearer a solution of her tragical troubles than she was when the revolution was first kindled. And she has been swept by civil war as if by fire. Her crops are destroyed, her fields lie unseeded, her work cattle are confiscated for the use of the armed factions; her people flee to the mountains to escape being drawn into unavailing bloodshed and no man seems to see or lead the way to peace and settled order. There is no proper protection either for her own citizens or for the citizens of other nations resident, and at work within her territory. Mexico is starving and without a government.

America Wants Nothing.

"In these circumstances the people and government of the United States cannot stand indifferently by and do nothing to serve their eighbor. They want nothing for themselves in Mexico. Least of all do they desire to settle her affairs for her, or claim any right to do so. But neither do they wish to see utter ruin come upon her and they deem it their duty as friends and neighbors to lend any aid they properly can to any instrumentality which promises to be successful in bringing about a settlement which will embody the real objects of the revolution constitutional government and the rights of the people. Patriotic Mexicans are sick at heart and cry out for peace and for every self-sacrifice that may be necessary to procure it. Their people cry out for food and will presently hate as much as they fear every man, in their country or out of it, who stands between them and their daily bread.

"It is time, therefore that the government of the United States should frankly state the policy which to these extraordinary circumstances it becomes its duty to adopt. It might presently do what it has not hitherto done or felt at liberty to do—lend its active moral support to some man or group of men; if such may be fund, who can rally the suffering people of Mexico to their support in an effort to ignore, if they cannot unite, the warring factions of the country, return to the constitution of the people so long in abeyance, and set up a government at Mexico City which the great powers of the world can recognize and deal with, a government with whom the programme of the revolution will be a business and not merely a platform.

Promises Further Action.

"I therefore, publicly and very solemnly call upon the leaders of factions in Mexico to act together and to act promptly for the relief and redemption of their prostrate country. I feel it to be my duty to tell them that if they cannot accommodate their differences and unite for this great purpose within a short time, this government will be constrained to decide what means should be employed by the United States in order to help Mexico save herself and serve her people."

Orders for the American troops along the border to co-operate with the Red Cross in getting food supplies to starving Mexicans probably will be issued at the War Department this week as a

SOUTHERN CROPS IN FIRST CLASS SHAPE

According to the National Crop Bulletin.

Cotton Throughout the Belt in Splendid Condition—Other Crops Doing Well—Good Wheat Yield in Southwest Promised.

Washington, June 2—The cotton crop is in splendid condition throughout practically the entire belt, the Department of Agriculture's national weather and crop bulletin, issued today, indicates.

"Precipitation sufficient for present needs occurred in practically all portions of the cotton belt," says the report, "and the crop is now making satisfactory growth. The late planted in Texas is coming up and a good stand is now reported. Cultivation is proceeding satisfactorily except in portions of Oklahoma, Arkansas and some of the more eastern sections where the soil continues too wet and the fields are becoming grassy."

Corn in the South has been greatly benefited by warm weather and rains and good yields of winter wheat in Texas with improved prospects in other sections of the South are reported. Truck crops in the South have improved, but rains came too late to help much in portions of the Middle Gulf coast.

JAIL DELIVERY FAILS THREE MEN ARE KILLED

Lone Man Attempts to Release Brother From Lockup.

Shot Jailor, a Policeman and is Himself Shot—Miami, Florida, Scene of Tragedy—Brother Sentenced to Death.

Miami, Fla., June 2.—Three men are dead as the result of an attempt today to liberate from the county jail John Ashley, under sentence to be executed June 18 for the murder of a Seminole Indian. The dead are B. H. Ashley, brother of the condemned man; Wilbur W. Hendrickson, jailor, and J. R. Riblett, police officer.

B. H. Ashley attempted the jail delivery alone. He went to the jailor's home, called Hendrickson to the door and shot him dead. Before Ashley could gain an entrance to the prison, however, two policemen arrived in response to Mrs. Hendrickson's screams and Ashley fled.

The fugitive tried to commandeer a motorcycle for a dash to the country, but before the driver could get the machine started Officer Riblett arrested Ashley. The prisoner drew a revolver and shot the officer twice. The policeman returned the fire once and Ashley died from the wound after being taken to jail. Riblett died in a hospital.

HAS PURCHASED THE EVERGLADE

Will Be Operated After Next Tuesday as Newman's Cafe.

Mr. J. T. Newman, proprietor of the Junction Restaurant, has purchased the Everglade Cafe from Mr. J. Fred Russ, the bill of sale having been filed for record yesterday. Mr. Newman will close the Everglade for repairs until next Tuesday, when it will be reopened as Newman's Cafe, after which time Mr. Newman will vacate his present location and serve the patrons of both establishments at his new stand.

Mr. Newman will operate at the former Everglade an up-to-date quick lunch counter and table service, and will also remove from the Junction to his new location the handsome soda fountain.

As announced some time ago, the Bear Estate, owning the building in which the Junction is located, will erect thereon a handsome new business structure. Mr. J. Irving Bear, managing the estate, stated yesterday that work on the new structure will not be started until the latter part of August, as the Tidewater Power Company does not vacate the second floor, where it has its transportation offices, until that time. Mr. Bear, in the meantime, will probably rent the first floor for the months of June, July and the early part of August.

WRESTLING MATCH TONIGHT

Johnny Cunningham and George Herbert to Grapple Again.

Johny Cunningham, of this city, and George Herbert, of Virginia, whose wrestling match last week ended in a draw, will grapple again this evening in Cunningham's club on the third floor of the Woolvin building on Princess street.

The evening's entertainment will begin at 8:30 o'clock, and the wrestling match will be proceeded by several preliminary events.

It is expected that a large crowd will witness the match.

Philadelphia, June 2.—Mrs. C. S. Vanderbeck, of the Philadelphia Cricket club, today won the championship of the Woman's Eastern Golf Association at the Merion Cricket club. She turned in a score of 92 for today's round of 18 holes. Yesterday she took 88, giving her a total of 180.

Albany, Ga., June 2.—Jake Mays, a 19-year-old youth of Wendell, N. C., pitched a no-hit, no-run game for Macon against Albany in the South Atlantic League here today.

AFTER MANY DAYS

Old Sol Again Greets Wilmington With the Smile of Summer.

After many days of dreary rain, to which was added the unattractive Northeast wind that makes all the world seem sad and commonplace, old Sol again greeted Wilmingtonians yesterday with the cheery smile of summer and once again it was hot, and everything assumed a bright and happy look.

Verily, summer is surely here this time, if the forecast of Weather Observer Felger can be relied upon. It won't be long now until thousands will be seeking the beach and all the dreary days of the past will be forgotten while the joy, the gladness and the happiness of youth reigns supreme for a season.

The Cape Fear river felt the effects of the heavy continuous rains and the prediction sent out yesterday was to the effect that it would reach a stage of about 37 feet at Fayetteville today.

ST. MARY'S CONFERENCE

Wilmingtonians Attending Inspiring Services in Raleigh This Week.

The conference at St. Mary's school in Raleigh this week is being participated in by leading Episcopal ministers and laymen and the services are proving to be very profitable for the large number who are attending from all parts of the State, among them being quite a number from Wilmington. Rev. William H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal church, and Rev. W. E. Cox, rector of St. John's, and Archdeacon Thomas P. Noe are on the programme for addresses.

Among those from Wilmington who are attending the conference are: Rev. Dr. William H. Milton, Archdeacon Thomas P. Noe, Rev. Edward Wooten, Mrs. S. P. Adams, Miss Louise W. Harlow and Mrs. James F. Wolvin.

ROBESON PARTY FAILS TO SEE THE PRESIDENT

Too Busy With European Situation to Receive Callers.

Thirty-Odd Robesonians Taking In the Capital City—McNinch Wants Elwood Cox Nominated for Governor.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Washington, D. C., June 2.—Dr. and Mrs. W. B. North and W. K. Bethune, of Lumberton, arrived here today with thirty-odd beautiful young school teachers and girls, for a week's visit in Washington. Mr. Bethune calls the tour his annual "Educational trip." All points of interest will be visited before the party returns home.

President Wilson had planned to receive the Lumberton party at the White House today, but because of the European situation has decided to deny himself to all callers until after he sends his reply to the German note.

THEATRICAL

Today the Bijou presents that great American Naval Review which was due for Tuesday, but did not arrive owing to a missed connection. The picture is the only one of its kind ever taken, showing the most imposing array of Uncle Sam's fighting ships ever assembled in an American port at one time. The picture is doubly inspiring, as first, is shown the commander of the different divisions and then the divisions of battleships themselves as the President's yacht Mayflower steamed past them at anchor in New York harbor. Then, after showing the great land parade, which, by the way, was in a driving rain, is shown the whole fleet as it takes on steam and slowly steams out of the harbor in a long procession of over a mile.

"From Italy's Shores" is a thrilling two-reel Universal drama that follows on today's bill, a story that is totally different and made into a photoplay that is just a little different from anything you have ever seen before.

Then comes that greatest of all comedians, Billy Ritchie himself, in a rousing L-Ko, "Love and Sour Notes," supported by pretty Peggy Pearce and "The L-Ko Fat Boy." You don't want to miss this.

A big United comedy feature, "Oysters and Pearls" closes the big bill for the day, which features the peerless Harry Mack, of legitimate stage fame.

In order to better handle the crowds that will be there today, the show will open this morning at 11 o'clock.

Scandal and Politics in "The Woman."

"The Woman," which is the fifth of the series of Lasky-Belasco film productions, is a drama of modern American poitical life, showing the manner in which the element of scandal may be introduced into politics for the injury of those people who are truly fighting for right and justice. The story of this play deals with the efforts of a group of machine politicians to bring about the downfall of an insurgent by the name of Standish who has been attempting to defeat a corrupt railroad bill. It is evident that Standish has the people of the country behind him and that he will accomplish his object unless he is in some manner discredited. On that account the politicians employ private detectives to search the history of his past life, and, finding that he was once engaged to a woman whom he did not marry, think they have found the thread to a story which will prove the means of wrecking his career. The only thing they lack is the name of the woman; and this is kept from them until too late for it to be of any assistance. The story of how "The Woman" is shielded by a little telephone girl is a heart interest drama of the finest quality.

"The Woman" will be the offering today at the Victoria.

At the Grand.

"What will Helen Holmes do next?" is the query put by photoplay patrons who see the death defying feats this girl performs in the different episodes of the "Hazards of Helen" series. A greater thrill than ever is due the people who see her today at the Grand in "The Wild Engine" and if you are fond of excitement you should certainly see this episode of that interesting series.

The Keystone "The Star Boarder" deals out the laughs on today's programme with a lavish hand. Charlie Chaplin feet, face and all is some star boarder and will keep you in a roar.

The two-reel Biograph "Black Sheep" is another of those great two-reel features the Biograph company is famous for. Facing ruin because of his son's dissipation Simeon Caruthers recoups his fortune by marrying a rich widow. He becomes guardian of his wealthy niece whom he destines to become his son's wife as soon as that erring young man can be found. The girl loves the widow's son and Caruthers schemes to get him out of the way. The two young people meet strangely and become characters in a tense drama all of which you should see at the Grand today.

Closing the bill is a two-reel drama written by Thomas Ince which is a guarantee of its quality alone. Jerome Storm and Gertrude Claire are featured in this production supported by Elizabeth Burbidge and Ed Brennan.

TAR HEEL DESIGNED CONFEDERATE FLAG

Committee of Veterans Settle Much Argued Question

MAJOR ORREN R. SMITH

Louisburg Man Given Full Credit for Designing "The Stars and Bars" by Committee Appointed to Investigate Matter.

Richmond, Va., June 2. — The credit for having designed the first flag of the Confederate States—the "Stars and Bars"—is awarded to the late Major Orren Randolph Smith, of Louisburg, North Carolina, by the United Confederate Veterans' committee, appointed to investigate the matter. The report of the committee was submitted to the reunion here today by General C. Irvine Walker, of Summerville, S. C., chairman. Other members of the committee who signed the report, are Major General Thomas Green, Pine Bluff, Ark., and Major General John P. Hickman, Nashville, Tenn.

The subject has been one of controversy for many years, and the investigation and conclusions of the committee, which was assisted in gathering evidence by committees of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Sons of Confederate Veterans and the Confederated Southern Memorial Association, are considered of much historic interest. The veterans' report states that a most exhaustive examination of the whole matter was made. The findings are given in part as follows:

"William Porcher Miles, for the Committee on Flag and Seal of the Confederacy, made report to the Provisional Congress of the Confederate States, at Montgomery, Ala., March 4, 1861, and with this report was submitted the selected design for the flag. Mr. Miles reported 'that something was conceded by the committee to what seemed a strong desire to retain at least a suggestion of the old Stars and Stripes.' The design submitted by the committee and subsequently approved by the Congress, was practically the same as the Stars and Stripes, except that the bars, red, white and red, were substituted for the thirteen stripes.

"The Miles report brought out that the Southern people earnestly loved the old Union; that they seceded therefrom with deep regret, when forced to do so to maintain their rights as a free people, and that this attachment was so strong that the Congressional committee was obliged to recommend a flag closely resembling 'Old Glory.'"

There were two claimants for the honor of having designed the Stars and Bars, the veterans' committee states, and evidence in support of their claims was presented by and on behalf of each. The claimants were Major Orren Randolph Smith (now deceased), of Louisburg, N. C., whose claim was presented by his daughter, Miss Jessica R. Smith, and Nicola Marschall, an artist, who in 1861 lived in Marion, Ala., and is now a resident of Louisville, Ky. Mr. Marschall's claim was filed by his wife and supplemented by Mrs. Chappell Cory, of Birmingham, Ala. The testimony submitted was considered from three viewpoints: First, that of contemporaneous, or local opinion of the facts; second, that of the direct evidence of persons, other than the claimants, as to the designing and submission of the design to the Flag committee of the Confederate Congress, and, third, that of statements made personally by the claimants.

Reviewing the testimony, the report continues, the committee finds:

"That it was the belief in 1861, of persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the residences of the claimants that each of said claimants had submitted the chosen design. * * *

"That the lady who made Major Smith's model and four other persons who saw her making it testified that the flag was Major Smith's design, that it was sent to the Confederate authorities at Montgomery and that it was the same as the Stars and Bars flag adopted by the Confederate Congress. Claimants of Mr. Marschall stated they did not deny that Major Smith sent a model to Montgomery. There is no evidence whatever submitted to show that any person testifying except Mr. Marschall, himself, ever saw his model, or of their own knowledge knew that such was made, or that it was handed to the Confederate Congressional committee.

"Your committee is not, from the evidence before it, convinced that Mr. Marschall ever submitted a design for the flag. The evidence does show that Major Smith did submit a design. Your committee is convinced that Major Smith did submit a design. As the design which the Congressional committee submitted with its report, which was adopted, the evidence most clearly shows to be the same as Major Smith's design, it is reasonable to conclude that Major Smith submitted the design of the Stars and Bars flag of the Confederate States.

"Your committee would, therefore, report, after a most careful consideration and thorough investigation, that the honor of having designed the first flag of the Confederate States, known as the 'Stars and Bars,' is due and should be awarded by the United Confederate Veterans to the late Major Orren Randolph Smith, of Louisburg, N. C."

The committee transmits with the report a transcription of all the evidence and affidavits submitted in the investigation.

TRIAL OF MRS. HAND BEGINS THIS MORNING

James Carter, Negro, Gets 30 Years in Penitentiary

Submits to Second Degree Burglary. J. C. Walker Taken to Raleigh to Begin 30-Year Term—Special Venire of 50 Ordered.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., June 2.—The trial of Mrs. Gussie Hand, charged with killing her brother, George P. Jordan, at the home of their father, five miles from here, about a year ago, has been set for tomorrow and a special venire of 50 ordered summoned, from which to select the jury. This case will probably be taken up first tomorrow morning. As there are very few witnesses to be heard, it is not expected that the taking of testimony will consume much time.

Jesse C. Walker was taken to Raleigh today by Sheriff Robinson, of Brunswick, and Deputy Sheriff L. Q. Myers, of Pender, to begin serving his 30-year term in the penitentiary for the killing of Sheriff Jackson Stanland, of Brunswick, in 1908, having submitted to second degree murder in court here yesterday, and Judge Rountree having imposed a sentence of 30 years.

In court today, James Carter, one of the two negroes charged with breaking into the residence of Mr. S. A. O'Neill at night while the family were asleep, entered a plea of guilty of burglary in the second degree and was sentenced to serve 30 years in the penitentiary. By this course, he probably saved his life, as there is little doubt that he would have been convicted of first degree burglary if the case had gone to the jury. The other negro implicated in the same offense had his case continued to give time for an investigation of his mental condition, as it is believed he is of unsound mind.

There have been several convictions of retailing and of violation of the stock law.

Five Inches of Rain In Twenty Four Hours

NOTHING LIKE IT AT FAYETTEVILLE IN 15 YEARS SAYS WEATHER MAN—RIVER 40 FEET AND RISING.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 2.—The continuous rains, and especially those of the last 24 hours, have proved disastrous to this section, Frank Glover, the government weather man at this station, says that within that time five inches of water has fallen, which is more within the same length of time than he has known during his 15 years of service.

The crops are badly in the grass, and Oliver Evans, a prominent farmer, says he fears that at least 1,000 acres of cotton has been lost on the east side of the river. Two dams here, that of Lakeview cotton mills, and that of the Culbreth grain mill, were swept away.

At last reports Cape Fear river was up 40 feet and rising a foot an hour. The creeks tributary thereto are backing up, which means a freshet.

TRIAL OF ELECTION FRAUD CASES IN RALEIGH BEGINS

Testimony Heard as to Case of Election Judge DeBoy.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 2.—The trial of Nicholas DeBoy, judge of election in the recent city election, on the charge of putting a ballot in the box when no one was voting it, began this afternoon, N. A. Dunn, C. H. Anderson and others testifying that they saw Deboy do this. Testimony for the defense, substantiated by Deboy's associate judges, was that an old soldier, Mr. Willis, from the Home, came in to vote. There was difficulty in finding his name on the poll book and Deboy, having prepared the ballot at his request, held it while the name was being looked up. When found, the old man had gone unobserved and they put in his ballot anyway. They heard the talk charging fraud, but attached no importance to it at the time. A verdict of acquittal is generally conceded. Ballots in the box tally with the poll book of voters.

A true bill has also come from the grand jury against Deputy United States Marshal Sturdevant, charging him with fraudulent voting in that he voted without being qualified as a resident of Raleigh, had been here officially several months but his family had not been moved here. His case comes up tomorrow. His plea is that he was told he did and believed he had a right to vote.

Baptized 21 Times To Cure An Ailment

LITTLE GIRL HEEDS INJUNCTION OF THE SPIRIT OF HER DEAD FATHER WHO SHE CLAIMS APPEARED TO HER

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 2.—Ruth Marshburn, a very pretty child between 11 and 12 years of age, came here yesterday from her home about five miles on the north side of Snow Hill on a most remarkable mission. The little girl on Tuesday night a week ago had a "vision," she declared. She was kept awake all night, she asserted, by the presence of the spirit of her father, who died in a hospital some weeks ago.

The spirit admonished her to be baptized twenty-one times in order to be cured of a physical ailment which had afflicted her for years. She plainly saw the departed parent in heaven, she said, and was with him for hours. By the manifold baptism, she was informed, she would be relieved of her affliction kins, a holiness minister, in the preskins, a holiness minister, i nthe presence of a small party, immersed Ruth Marshburn one and one score times in the water of Neuse river at the foot of Parrott's bridge.

The little girl was the guest of relatives here for the day, and in the afternoon surprised a party by picking up a Bible, opening it carelessly, and reading whole chapters with the dexterity of an educated person, with flawless pronunciation and perfect punctuation. Ruth Marshburn returned home confident that on a day in next October when she will be a round dozen years old she will become a physically normal as well as beautiful little girl. If faith can heal she will probably have her desire.

IN HONOR OF MISS QUINN

Mrs. Grady Gives Delightful Reception to Party of Young People.

Saracta, N. C., June 2.—In honor of Miss Floy Quinn, who has been teaching near Wilmington and who has just returned home, Mrs. Jerry Grady gave a lawn party from 4 to 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon last. Music was furnished by Mrs. Arthur Whitfield and Miss Essa Williams.

The guests were dressed in colors, the party showing the various colors of the rainbow. During the evening various kinds of outdoor games were indulged in with great interest. Choice pieces of literature were recited during the afternoon. Many conundrums were propounded and much enthusiasm put in the answers.

Under the beautiful trees many kinds of delicious refreshments were served. The guests were Misses Floy Quinn, Catherine Thomas, Estelle Grady, Bessie Williams, Essa Williams; Messrs. Kent Holland, Matt Quinn, James Whitfield, Roland Thomas, Henry Grady and Blannis Wallace.

Safety+Quickness

"Safety First" must ever be the watchword in firearms. But safety must not be secured at the expense of quick action. The Colt Automatic Pistol combines the most dependable kind of safety—automatic safety—with instant firing.

The Colt can't be discharged accidentally, because the trigger must be pulled and the safety in the grip must be pressed in at the same instant and this can't be done except it is done purposely. So much for safety.

As for quickness, the Colt always gets there first, for in an emergency you don't have to bother with or think about the grip safety—it takes care of itself and you.

There is all sorts of fame for a bumptious man who can get credit for what some modest man does.

Well, isn't a sharp shooter another kind of war assassin, if there are other kinds taking a hand in hostilities?

During the first few days of June it forgets itself and acts as if it were some sort of a rainy spell in the fall.

We seem to be regretting that we have been so anti-militaristic that we are not ready when we ought to be prepared.

We will pay a reward to any South Carolina poet who can discover a rhyme for jitney. Of course, we except Whitney, N. C. That is our rhyme property.

Being distinguished and being poor at the same time makes a man almost believe in the redistribution of wealth and other things he needs to keep up appearances.

We are asked to "sift the truth from the lies about the war." Tut! Tut! Nobody will live to do that. A hundred years from today many prevarications will constitute history.

How much of the South's cottonseed meal and cottonseed cake does the South consume? Are we shipping away raw and crude materials that we should use or finish at home?

Of course, we don't expect a thing if we should go to war, but we are satisfied some of them would give us a piece of Turkey if we would only hurry and go to the front of the front.

A man jumped from Brooklyn bridge in order to win fame, but the poor fellow met death. How few of us would care two straws about the kind of fame one gets by jumping from a bridge.

A great many of us can recognize an opportunity when we see it, but when it comes to seizing it we find that the main prerequisite is accumulated savings i na bank. The finest opportunities require each.

A man named Pat Joyce was arrested at Pittsburgh and required by a court to pay $1.40 for sauerkraut which he bought on credit. Of course, Pat now knows better than to think he can violate neutrality by deliberately beating kraut out of his grocer.

They want us to fight the Mexicans because the Mexicans keep on fighting each other. We are pretty well satisfied that the Mexicans would prefer fighting each other to fighting us. At the same time the Mexicans had better fight it to a finish instead of leaving it to us.

In war one object of belligerents is to sink ships belonging to each other. It almost breaks their hearts when people are on board ships that have to be sunk. However, they ought to let the non-combatant neutral people get off and then sink the ships. It has been done many a time. That's civilization's rule. Giving women and children no chance whatever to get off is the crux of the matter that they would have us conveniently overlook.

DEGREE FOR MR. SPRUNT.

The degree of Doctor of Laws (LL. D.) will be easily worn by Mr. James Sprunt as an honor conferred yesterday by the University of North Carolina. The announcement that such an honorary degree has been conferred upon one of the leading citizens of Wilmington and of North Carolina by the University of the State, is made from Chapel Hill in this morning's Star, and certainly Wilmington will feel honored quite as much as will her greatly esteemed and honored citizen. It will extremely gratify Wilmington that the State's leading educational institution and one of the greatest in the South has singled out Mr. Sprunt for an honorary degree to which he is eminently entitled.

To speak of Dr. Sprunt where he is so well known would be supererogation, hence it is sufficient to say only that the degree of LL.D. has come to him because he has merited it, as the University has fully recognized. His scholarly attainments and his achievements in letters marked him for this signal attention from the State's highest seat of learning, but Wilmington feels as if it is more to be congratulated than its already most honored citizen.

Mr. Sprunt's contributions to the literature of the State are notable, and their chief value lies in the fact that he has chronicled history of the greatest value to present and future generations. No historical sketches we ever read are more delightful in diction and so entertaining in narrative than those with which Dr. Sprunt has enriched North Carolina bibliology.

BUSINESS AND WAR PROSPECTS.

America's leading and largest bank is of the opinion that business conditions have much improved and will continue to do so, with very little likelihood of war with Germany. In the opinion expressed in the National City Bank's June circular, the general business situation is regarded as slightly better than a month ago, notwithstanding the disturbing influence of the Lusitania tragedy. The bank's circular says:

"The Middle West is optimistic, influenced by the prosperous condition of the farming population and the prospects for another good crop. Reports from the crops since the middle of the month have not been so favorable, wheat having suffered from insects and corn planting being delayed by cold and wet weather, but there is plenty of time yet for both to make good. The winter wheat yield may be short of last year's, but the spring planting promises a larger crop. Bank deposits from Texas north are higher than ever known before and money conditions are easy. The rate of interest on farm loans is lower than a year ago, and there is some movement in farm lands at a further advance in prices. Cattle and sheep are bringing better prices and the wool clip is bringing the best prices known for years. Over 300,000,000 bushels of wheat have now been exported from the 1914 crop and perhaps 25,000,000 bushels are yet to go out. One of the unexpected windfalls to the farmers has been the sale to Europe since last July of 185,000 horses for $40,695,037. Most of them were probably superfluous and all can be spared without serious inconvenience.

"The cotton states are still very quiet. The new crop is backward, but has been doing better for the past week. The reduction in acreage is smaller than it would have been, but for the recovery in price before the planting season opened, but may reach 10 per cent. The total acreage in all crops is enlarged every year by the clearing of cut-over lands and the area in other crops will be increased by more than the reduction in cotton. The amount of fertilizer used this year will not be more than 50 per cent of the usual amount, and this reduction will affect the yield. Altogether a considerable curtailment of yield from last year's record crop is to be expected. So far as industrial production for domestic consumption is concerned it is not clear that there has been any gain during the last month, but there is greater activity upon export orders, particularly in the steel and machinery lines. It is a relief to hear complaints of labor shortage. Notwithstanding these good signs the fact remains that railway earnings are still falling below the earnings of last year, which were not good. The demand for money in business is light, while bank clearings are about on a level with a year ago.

"Money continues in abundant supply and rates are quoted easier."

Probably no other American institution is so thoroughly posted on the outlook as the National City Bank, of New York. It has all the means of fully analyzing the situation generally, and in the June circular, from which we quote, the belief is expressed that war between the United States and Germany is hardly a probability. However, the statement is made that there is no reason to suppose that the entrance of this country into war would seriously affect the general business or financial situation at this time. Here is the view the bank takes of the country's relations with Germany:

"It is not believed that war will come between the United States and Germany, because it is believed that both governments sincerely desire to avoid it and that ground will be found upon which they can meet. The issues involved are serious, however, and it is possible that the negotiations may be protracted, which in itself is to be regretted, as there is always the chance of new complications. It is very much to be hoped that nothing will be said or written to increase irritation or promote the war spirit, which through the public press is quickly reflected from one country to another. The terms of settlement, so far as this country is concerned, are in the hands of the Government at Washington, which is known to be strongly predisposed to peace, although it has clearly recognized an obligation to stand for all neutral rights, the loss of which would be a misfortune to the world. It does not follow, however, because two countries disagree about their rights that they must go to war; either side may yield under protest or they may make mutual concessions until the questions at issue can be peacefully determined by a concert of the powers. While the entrance of this country into the war would be deplorable, there is no reason to suppose that it would seriously affect the general business or financial situation at this time. Intercourse with Germany and her allies is now so nearly cut off that the slight trade remaining is of small consequence, and, on the other hand, considerable stimulus would be probably given to some lines of industry. Later on we would inevitably suffer from the further diversion of our industries to the manufacture of war equipment and supplies, and it cannot be contemplated without an earnest hope for the revival of peaceful industry instead."

At all events, the strongest financial institution of this country sees nothing even in war to seriously affect the business of the United States.

REPUBLICAN FOR GOVERNOR.

The Republicans still have an idea that the people of North Carolina would again trust that party after a most disastrous trial during the Reconstruction period and again with almost similar results in the 90's. The Republicans already are talking about who shall be their candidate for governor in next year's general election.

Former United States Senator Marion Butler, of Washington, D. C., has picked out the next governor of North Carolina in the person of the Hon. Zeb Vance Walser, of Lexington, and he tells the Washington correspondents that unless conditions change Zeb is the man to be nominated by the Republicans. Walser is a Progressive, but that does not make any difference to a Republican. Neither will it keep Mr. Walser from getting cold feet as the choice of a man so unfavorably known in North Carolina as Butler.

The Hon. Marion's idea is that the people of North Carolina want a change, but they got a change once and got short-changed in a way that they will never forget. Butler thinks the Republicans have a chance to elect a governor and at least two congressmen in North Carolina, but there will be nothing doing if the candidates are to be picked by the former Populist senator.

It is said that leading Republicans who go to Washington want Col. E. C. Duncan as the Republican nominee for governor. Meanwhile, the Democrats do not care who gets the honor of the Republican nomination, as they feel that the next governer will be a Democrat on whom they won't have to take any chances.

A CREAMERY BUSINESS OF $121,009.48.

A North Carolina creamery which is doing a business of more than $121,000 a year is such an important institution that it is a matter of interest and value for the whole State to know about it. That is what the Catawba Co-operative Creamery at Hickory has done the past year, the fifth since it was established by the enterprising people of Hickory and Catawba county.

With a plant valued at $1,500 five years ago, the Catawba creamery now has a new plant worth $20,000, and already it is so increasing its business that another enlargement is only a matter of time.

This creamery succeeded from the very beginning. During the first year's operations, the butter factory distributed $19,911.08 among the farmers along the cream routes. The next year showed the astonishing gain of $52,163.50, while the third year indicated a total revenue derived up to $57,915.65. The fourth year jumped its revenue up to $121,009.49. The gross butter sales in 1914 amounted to 256,704 pounds, while 135,541 dozen eggs were shipped.

From $19,811.08 to $121,009.49 in four years is going some, and it is encouraging to the State that the Catawba creamery is showing the way to increase the wealth of the State by a new industry which not only keeps the money of the people at home but brings in money from customers in other states.

The creamery success at Hickory inspired the new one at Mooresville, Iredell county, and it, too, is making a wonderful stride since it was established in December last. Charlotte has no creamery, but the News is urging one for Mecklenburg county. Already numerous cream routes have been organized among the Mecklenburg farmers who are shipping their cream to Mooresville and Hickory.

When are we going to get busy with that Wilmington creamery? When we get a good thing going, it ought to be pushed along without delay.

ADVOCATES COLD STORAGE

To the Editor of The Star:

The market on cabbage is 90 cents to $1 a crate. The market prospects for potatoes are very discouraging as all shippings points are ready to ship at the same time. It seems to me the part of wisdom to use cold storage in taking care of these crops for a few weeks, then the market will take care of these crops at a good price. For instance cabbage in six or eight weeks will be shipped here from Mt. Airy at $25 to $40 a ton plus the freight. By crating and storing ours which are now going to waste we will not only get a profit out of our cabbage but keep this money at home.

My attention was called yesterday to a similar situation in the potato crops of last year. At Norfolk a grower found the market 90 cents a barrel at digging time and so he decided to use cold storage at a cost of ten cents a barrel a month. At the end of six weeks potatoes had advanced to $1.50 to $1.75 a barrel. It was also pointed out that some of these potatoes were shipped to Georgia at $4 a barrel plus the freight because all the potatoes from that section had been shipped to other points earlier in the season.

We wonder why the farmers do not make use of storage and other things that are helpful. Well, they do intend to do so, but they are so busy at work making some other crop, half of which will probably go to waste. So they just wind up by saying they were too busy to do it. We have got to change our methods, use cold storage where we can, use home canneries when we can and take care of the wasted products whenever we can.

BUS SERVICE FOR COUNTY

To the Editor of The Star:

I am glad to note that it is contemplated to extend the route of the jitney cars to East Wilmington. With our excellent roads a county route could be arranged which would ultimately be profitable to the owners and highly serviceable to the rural communities. Three or four years ago a gentleman from Erie, Pa., was spending the winter here. I drove him around the country with me as I visited my schools. He suggested to me the idea of giving such service to the people. He stated that it was very common in England and in some parts of this country.

The only difficulty in the way was the sparsity of our rural population. Since then this section has been taken up by small farmers, especially on the new roads. Of course, the use of such a service by the people will have to be developed and the people must become accustomed to its use. Then they would wonder how they managed to get along without it. There are many people who do not own a conveyance, or cannot spare the use of teams in busy farming seasons. I believe they would quickly seize the opportunity to run into the city and return on quick business trips, especially if a convenient schedule is afforded.

My greatest desire is to give some easy means of getting into the city to our school children.

This year there were 18 pupils from the county who received admission to the high school. Many of them cannot avail themselves of this advantage because of lack of conveyance.

I am anxious that my children, as I love to call them, of the rural communities may have every means of securing a liberal education; for it is only in this way that we can build up a progressive and intelligent people. There is splendid material in the rural schools to make strong efficient men and women.

I do hope that these enterprising jitney car owners will develop some remunerative plan by which this result may be obtained.

CURRENT COMMENT.

First place for North Carolina again. Now it is that it ranks first in the health work of the South. And we go forward.—Raleigh News and Observer.

South Carolina must have splendid credit, for that state has negotiated a $600,000 loan at 2.69 per cent interest. Either that or South Carolina knows where money is cheap.—Wilmington (N. C.) Star. Good credit and good borrowers.—Columbia Record.

Lloyds is now giving odds that the war will not be over by the first of the year. As it was giving odds a few months ago that the war would be over by October the first it is manifest that Lloyds is hedging.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

Remarks the Wilmington Star: "We have reached the sentimental stage in North Carolina," and further: "We will now greet the June bride." How? If you attempt to greet her too effusively you'd better get wise as to the proximity of the bridegroom!—Raleigh News and Observer.

Now comes a sepulchral voice from the tomb, a resonant, vibrant chasm of yesteryear. It is the still small voice of Marion Butler—beloved Mary Ann—and it proclaims that in the form of Hon. Zeb Vance Walser the Republicans have a gubernatorial candidate at once stern and terrible. Human nature was ever victim of gentle flattery, and we are certain that, hugged in the embrace of Mary Ann's caresses, Zeb Vance Walser will find it impossible to be among those absent when the political lightning is flashing in his neighborhood.—Charlotte News.

Lumberton is to have licensed cooks, nurses and washwomen. At a recent meeting of the mayor and town commissioners it was ordered that an ordinance be drawn requiring all cooks, nurses and washwomen to have certificates of health from a physician. In passing an ordinance like that Lumberton, if it does not lead the State, gets right up in the front rank. If the ordinance is enforced as it should be it will protect many a child from disease and may save entire families. Nearly everybody realizes in a general way that there is danger in employing cooks and nurses who are suffering with certain diseases, but long chances are taken. It is so much trouble, sometimes, to get a cook or a nurse, so anything that comes along will do. Some way about washwomen, only few people give much thought to the danger in sending their clothes out into filthy places or to be handled by diseased persons. The Robesonian some time ago called attention to some excellent suggestions along this line which was noticed in some other paper, and it is glad to see that it made a good impression and has borne good fruit.—Lumberton Robesonian.

TO FIGHT TYPHOID.

Demand for Anti-Typhoid Campaigns in Several Progressive Counties.

(State Board of Health.)

The anti-typhoid idea is taking root rapidly. As soon as announcement was made that the State Board of Health would carry on joint campaigns with a limited number of counties, five progressive counties responded within a few days with appropriations ranging from $300 from Henderson and Buncombe to $350 for Cumberland; $400 from Northampton and $750 from Wake. Five counties are all that can be undertaken at a time.

Letters of inquiry and applications from a number of citizens of other counties continue to pour in, and already several are talking of providing for such campaigns in their counties as soon as the campaigns are completed in the first five. Among the counties that appear to be considering this matter most seriously at this time are Orange, Iredell, Edgecombe, Halifax, Wilson and Wayne. Of this group, it is probable that several will respond at the next meeting of their board of county commissioners which will be held next Monday. It would not be at all surprising, however, to hear that some other counties, from which little agitation has been heard, will also respond. The campaign will start in the first five counties on June 21, and will continue six weeks. The campaign in the second set of counties will not open until August 2nd.

GOVERNOR TAKES ACTION.

Craig Will Go from Chapel Hill to Western Carolina.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 3.—Governor Craig has gone to Chapel Hill for the University of North Carolina commencement, in connection with which he will present the diplomas to the graduating class. Thereafter he will go to Western Carolina for a protracted vacation, spending much of the time in Asheville. Col. J. P. Kerr, private secretary, has just returned from a couple of weeks' vacation which he spent at Asheville, principally, and will give his personal attention to the duties of the executive office in so far as he can take care of the routine.

A charter was issued today for the Pin-less Clothes Line Co., of Wilmington, capital $15,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed by T. W. Callahan, Blanche Callahan and D. D. Walker, for the manufacture and sale of a patent clothes line.

All Germs Ordered To Beat it!—Git!

Searching Influence of a Remedy That Works Wonders.

The introduction of S. S. S. is at once a command to blood impurities to find a way out.

And what are blood impurities? They may be the hypersecretions found in the mucous linings of the body; they may be acid accumulations known as rheumatism; they may be boils, pimples, eczema, acne and stubborn, indolent sores.

But examined closely, they are all germs that have gotten the upper hand and it requires the flushing influence of S. S. S. to drive them out. And out they go when S. S. S. begins to circulate in the blood. It only requires five minutes to begin this influence, for it is a fact that in this limited time S. S. S. may be traced in the urine, in the perspiration, in the efflorescence from the lungs to show that it is at work. Germs, mind you, are of various kinds, but all are foreign to health and S. S. S. is no respecter of destructive germs, it drives them all out, of whatsoever name they go by. Just get a bottle of S. S. S. of any druggist and soon you will observe a decided change. And if yours is a stubborn case, write to the Medical Adviser, care of The Swift Specific Co., 107 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. He is a regular physician, proud of his name by virtue of his distinguished family and is recognized as a foremost physician on his own merit.

FEELS LIKE A NEW WOMAN

As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Dispelled Backache, Headaches and Dizziness.

Piqua, Ohio.—"I would be very ungrateful if I failed to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise it deserves, for I have taken it at different times and it always relieved me when other medicines failed, and when I hear a woman complain I always recommend it. Last winter I was attacked with a severe case of organic weakness. I had backache, pains in my hips and over my kidneys, headache, dizziness, lassitude, had no energy, limbs ached and I was always tired. I was hardly able to do my housework. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one other occasion, and it had helped me so I took it again and it has built me up, until now I feel like a new woman. You have my hearty consent to use my name and testimonial in any way and I hope it will benefit suffering women."—Mrs. ORPHA TURNER, 431 S. Wayne St., Piqua, Ohio.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

LIGHTING PETITIONS FILED WITH COUNCIL

Matter of Improved System is Urged by Rotary Club.

Bear Signatures of 300 Representative Citizens—Will be Considered at the Next Meeting—Other Matters.

Petitions circulated by the Rotary Club and signed by 300 representative citizens, calling for an improved lighting system in the downtown section of the city, were filed with City Council at the weekly meeting, thought the matter was not gone into by Council, on account of the absence of the Mayor and two members. It will be taken up again at a later meeting, when representatives of the Rotary Club will be present to urge that the wishes of the citizens, as expressed in the petitions, be complied with.

Mayor Moore and Councilmen Jones and Bradshaw were absent yesterday, and Councilman Merritt, Mayor Pro Tem, presided. Little business of importance came before the body for its consideration.

As stated some days ago, Councilman Bradshaw, in charge of the department of streets and wharves, is already working on a plan for an improved lighting system in the downtown district, and the other members of Council appear to be favorable to an improvement. The length of a contract is the principal question involved in the change.

The Rotary Club's petition, which was presented by a committee composed of Messrs. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., Jno. R. Murchison, Milton Calder and S. M. Boatwright, is as follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., May 28, 1915.

"We, the undersigned merchants and business men of Wilmington, believe that it would be to the immediate advantage of the entire city, to have the business portion of Front street, Market street, and Princess street, lighted with the best, most modern, and most ornamental system of street lighting; and

"Whereas, the Tidewater Power Company has indicated a willingness to install such a system and to operate for a term of years; and

"Whereas, they could not be expected to invest the large amount of capital necessary to install the desired system unless they were given a contract which would reasonably protect the said capital;

"We express it as our conviction and we strongly recommend that an agreement should at once be made with the Tidewater Power Company covering the satisfactory carrying out of this project; and subsequently a contract should be entered into with the said company similar in its general terms but not less favorable, than contracts executed by the City of Charlotte or the city of Raleigh, for the installation and operation of lighting systems of the kind desired;

"We ask the present City Council and their successors in office to take such steps as are necessary to conclude such a contract and carry out this plan."

E. K. Bryan, Esq., former city attorney, appeared before Council to ask that a city regulation be suspended to allow Mrs. Potter to repair the front porch at her house on Market street, between Second and Third, where the porch extends out over the sidewalk line. The matter was left open until the return of the Mayor.

Mr. H. W. Konig appeared before the body with reference to a judgment held by the city against him for a balance of something like $165 due on the Fourth street paving. Council decided to allow Mr. Konig to give the city his note for 90 days for the amount.

Councilman Hall stated that complaints had been made of the newsboys crying their papers all over the city early Sunday mornings, when most people desire to sleep late. He suggested that the police look into the matter and see if they cannot bring about a cessation of the nuisance, and if not he thought an ordinance ought to be passed giving them the necessary power.

At the suggestion of Councilman Merritt, it was decided to have a number of circulars printed, explaining the new provisions for the collection of fees for scavenger service, and these circulars will be distributed by the employes of the scavenging department and by the sanitary police.

A communication from the health officer called attention to the understanding reached with the former Council, whereby no licenses to meat markets, restaurants, food shops, etc., were to be granted, except where the applicant presented a permit from the Board of Health. Inquiry from the tax collector brought the information that this agreement is now being observed.

Chief Charles Schnibben, of the fire department, reported that application had been made by Mr. J. H. Lewis for a permit to open and operate a blacksmith shop at the old Schloss stable on Princess street, between Fourth and Fifth. Members of Council were of the opinion that residents of that section would object to the noise from such a shop, and the matter was left open for a week.

THREE NEW CARS FOR TIDEWATER LINES.

Painted in Cream White Color Which Will be Used on All Cars.

Three new trolley cars, recently ordered from the J. G. Brill Company, of Philadelphia, by the Tidewater Power Company for use on their city lines, arrived last night and will be unloaded today. They are painted in a cream white color which will in the future be the color of all the cars of this company. These cars are of the same type as the cars now used except that the platforms are wider.

The cars were painted with paint sent from Holland in accordance with a suggestion of Mr. Frank Meade, connected with the Tidewater interests, who, while abroad last winter, was so greatly pleased with the color of the cars used in The Hague, that he prevailed upon this company to use a similar paint on the cars operated in Wilmington.

Several manufacturers of cars in this country are much interested in the experiment and, while Wilmington will be the first city in this country to have cars of this color, it is quite probable that the use of this paint will be extended to cars in other cities. In addition to being a color that appeals particularly to those of artistic tastes the paint is said to be very durable.

ANNUAL POLICE REPORT MADE

Chief Williams Reviews Activities of Department for Past Year—Makes Recommendations.

Outlining the activities of the department during the past fiscal year and making a number of recommendations for the ensuing year, Chief of Police N. J. Williams yesterday submitted his annual report to City Council. The report shows a total of 1,948 arrests for the year, or 110 more than the previous year, the chief attributing the increase to the fact that owing to business conditions an unusually large number of people have been out of employment for a considerable part of the past year.

Council accepted the report and commented favorably on the showing made by the police department. Chief Williams' recommendations were referred to Councilman Jas. M. Hall, in charge of the police department.

The report, which was accompanied by a statistical summary of arrests, was as follows:

To the Mayor and Council:

Gentlemen:—In submitting the report of arrests made during the year ending with May 31st, 1915, I desire to make some comment upon the work accomplished by the department during the year. It will be observed that we have made 110 more arrests this year than during the previous year, and that the principal causes for the increase in the number of arrests is due to the increase in the commission of the offenses of larceny, vagrancy, gambling and violations of the prohibition law. The increase in the commission of these crimes is undoubtedly due to business conditions existing here for many months, more people being idle and out of employment than at any time for many years past. The tabulated report shows a substantial decrease in drunkenness and disorderly conduct, there being only 218 cases of drunkenness and 346 arrests for disorderly conduct during the year just closed. It will be observed that these two offenses have been gradually decreasing for several years. Over 500 per centum of the defendants arrested for the offenses of disorderly conduct assault, larceny, vagrancy, gambling, and illicit liquor selling, are persons of the colored race. The commission of these crimes is done, of course, by the lower element of the colored race and they are generally committed around their places of recreation and amusement.

In my judgment, something should be done to lessen the commission of these crimes among colored people, as it is no doubt due to conditions which can be remedied. It is a well known fact that the negro is a great lover of pastime and amusements, and if their recreation places were placed upon a higher plane and good order required and maintained, I am of the opinion that the number of arrests for the crimes above mentioned would be greatly decreased. While the anti-jug or quart law has been in effect only for a short time, I can see that this law has greatly reduced the amount of whiskey shipped into Wilmington, and this law will probably assist us in our efforts to stamp out the illegal sale of liquor. While there seems to be no method by which the sale of liquor can be entirely stopped, I am of the opinion that the imposition of heavier sentences by the courts would tend to greatly assist the police force in their efforts to keep down this crime.

Must Have Support of Courts.

In fact, the efforts of the police officer to enforce the law will have very little permanent effect unless the courts deal firmly with guilty persons arrested and brought before them for trial. The report shows that we have had less gambling in a large way this year than during any past year since I have been connected with the department, and most of the cases of this kind have been for "crap shooting" by negro boys.

The police force has been thoroughly organized and each member has been doing most efficient service. The correctness of this assertion will be recognized when we consider that the department has captured every person committingn murder in Wilmingto during the past two years; that we have made 33 arrests for house and store-breaking during the year, which is almost as many arrests as there were breakings. When we consider these facts and the further fact that the liquor laws are better enforced here than in any other town in the State, the public will understand that the efficiency of the force as it has stood for the past two years could not have been maintained except through thorough organization and co-operation and determined effort on the part of every man connected with the department to perform his duty.

Personnel of Force Improved.

Since the department has been under civil service the personnel of the police force has been greatly improved, the civil service examinations having the effect of preventing the appointment of incompetent men in the police service. Another important effect of civil service is the encouragement given the patrolmen, each man being aware that he will not be removed for political reasons and that he may hold his position until he has been shown to be incompetent upon fair trial. It is a decidedly unwise proposition, in any business, to replace experienced men with those who have had no practical experience, and an experienced officer should not be removed from the service except in cases where it becomes absolutely necessary. Realizing that great losses in efficiency, as well as in money, has been directly attributable to dismissing experienced men for frivolous causes and replacing them with men of no experience, many of the largest corporations in this country have adopted methods to prevent the dismissal of experienced men from their service, except in momentous cases. These methods, I am informed, show splendid results both as to economy and efficiency.

The new equipment furnished this department a year ago has been of great value to the police service, in fact, the city had greatly outgrown the class of equipment being used prior to that time. Without the modern equipment now being used the department would be unable to cope with present day conditions. The traffic conditions are among the most difficult problems confronting us now, and the fact that fast moving motor vehicles are daily increasing in numbers tends to aggravate the situation. We have inaugurated new methods of handling traffic, both as to vehicles and pedestrians, at Front and Princess streets, and we hope to soon see marked improvement in conditions at that point.

Traffic Recommendations.

I would respectfully recommend that a traffic ordinance be passed, prohibiting automobiles from standing on Front street, between Grace and Market streets, for more than ten minutes at a time, between the hours of 6 A. M. and 6 P. M., and that vehicles be not

WATERFRONT PROPERTY CONVEYED YESTERDAY

Deeds for Two Parcels in Big Transaction.

Major Portion of Realty Bought by Alexander Sprunt & Son Has Already Been Transferred. Two More Pieces.

Two parcels of the property included in the big waterfront realty transaction whereby Alexander Sprunt & Son, local cotton exporters, purchase more than half a block of property fronting on the river all the way between Grace and Walnut streets, were formally transferred yesterday, the deeds having been placed on file for record during the afternoon. It is understood that the other two parcels involved in the transaction will be conveyed as soon as the attorneys pass upon the titles.

The two parcels conveyed yesterday are those owned by the Wilmington Dock & Storage Company, a corporation closely identified with the Fidelity Trust & Development Company, and the lot purchased from the Boney & Harper Milling Company.

The parcel purchased from the Wilmington Dock & Storage Company is a part of the property formerly known as the Worth property, which was purchased from the Worth estate a few years ago by the Fidelity Trust & Development Company and later that portion included in the present transaction transferred by the Fidelity to the Wilmington Dock & Storage Company.

This is the largest of the four parcels making up the tract purchased by the Messrs. Sprunt, and has a frontage of approximately 195 feet on the river and a depth of 411 feet, its southern boundary facing on Grace street and its northern face adjoining the property purchased from the Boney & Harper Milling Company.

This latter property has a frontage of 66 feet on the river and extends all the way through the block from Nutt street to the river, a depth of approximately 530 feet.

The deed transferring the Wilmington Dock & Storage Company's property specified "for $10,000 and other considerations," while the instrument conveying the Boney & Harper property did not give the amount of the consideration. However, it is stated on good authority that the figures given yesterday—$100,000 for the first mentioned parcel, and $35,000 for the latter—are approximately correct.

As stated in yesterday's Star, it is understood that Messrs. Sprunt will erect on their new property a large storage warehouse of the most modern type.

MISS ALDERMAN'S SCHOOL HAS CLOSING EXERCISES

Medals and Prizes Awarded Yesterday —Those on Honor Roll.

The closing exercises of Miss Alderman's exercises took place yesterday morning when medals and prizes were awarded and the honor roll for the year was announced. The examinations were completed last week. The year has been a successful one in every way. The health of the pupils has been exceptionally good while the work has been highly satisfactory.

Tomorrow night the Sunbeam club will give its annual play in the Academy of Music. The proceeds will go to the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium fund. The pupils have been busy for several weeks rehearsing their parts and the play promises to be a most enjoyable affair.

The honor roll of the school for the past year is as follows: Lucile Kasehagan, Thelma Webster, Lillian Carpenter, Marian Summerell, Katherine Orrell, Wintonton Green, Neewah Woods, Harriss Canady, Julius Canady, George Quinn, Kathleen, Billy Thrower, Sybil Tremain, Mildred Boylan, Sallie Canady, Thomas McIntyre, Elizabeth Shaw, Elsie Mills.

Lucile Kasehagen won the Thomas Payne Bagley medal, offered by Mrs. Eustace Norfleet in memory of her brother, who was a student at the school. She has not been absent nor tardy during the year and made the splendid record of reciting every lesson perfectly and making grade of 98 or more on all examinations.

Excelsior medals were awarded in the other classes to Howard Green, Julius, Canady, Elizabeth Shaw, Sybil Tremain, Genella Green, Sallie Belle Canady and Thomas McIntyre.

Prizes for improvement in penmanship were awarded to Master Herbert Andrews and George L. Quinn.

The following pupils received medals for perfect attendance during the term: Lucile Kasehagen, Julia Canady, Katherine Orrell, George Quinn, Pearl Orrell, Billy Thrower, Elizabeth Shaw and Sybil Tremain.

EXTREMES IN TEMPERATURES

May Had Many Changes in Weather Conditions—Few Clear Days.

May had many changes in temperatures during the month, ranging from a maximum of 94 degrees on the 16th to a minimum of 55 degrees on the 28th. The greatest daily range, according to the monthly report of Observer Felger, was on the 2nd when the difference between the maximum and the minimum was 25 degrees. There were few clear days during the month, the number being only seven while there were 15 partly cloudy days and nine when it was cloudy all day. The total hours of sunshine for the month were 242 out of a possible 432.

The total precipitation for the month was only 3.59 inches, but this came not in heavy showers, but at intervals, so that it seemed much larger than was really the case. The mean temperature for the month was 72 degrees, three degrees above normal for the last 44 years. The highest wind velocity was 28 miles on the 27th and the average hourly velocity was 8.6 miles.

Burned Mosquito Netting.

Several Italians occupying a room on the third floor of the Citizen's bank building, No. 201 Princess street, were smoking cigarettes a few minutes before 12 o'clock last night, principally it seems with a view to getting rid of mosquitoes, when a mosquito netting caught fire. A policeman saw the smoke and turned in the alarm from box 212. The fire department turned out in full force, the crowds gathered and Fire Chief Schnibben looked after the fire which of course was quickly extinguished.

Acute Articular Rheumatism

Relieved By Anti-Kamnia Tablets

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may be also said with equal truth that no remedy has been found which is a specific in all cases. In fact the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few drugs which have not been given a trial. In the hands of one observer we find that a certain drug has been used with the utmost satisfaction; others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by the administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. S. Schultze expresses the opinion of thousands of practitioners when he says that Anti-kamnia Tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain in all forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They are also unsurpassed in headaches, neuralgias and all pain. Ask for A-K Tablets.

CHILDREN HAVE OUTING.

Immanuel Sunday School Goes on Picnic—Another Excursion Today.

The children of Immanuel and South Wilmington Presbyterian Sunday schools had their annual outing to Wrightsville Beach yesterday. They went down as the guests of the Tidewater Power Company in special cars which left Front and Princess streets at 10 o'clock and spent the entire day at Lumina. An enjoyable lunch was served and the children spent the afternoon most pleasantly playing games.

The Sunday schools of the Church of the Good Shepherd and the Chapel of the Ascension will have their picnics today, the excursion having been postponed from May 18th. This will be the last Sunday school picnic to Wrightsville Beach for the season.

MR. CHAS. R. SUGG WEDS MRS. M. E. RICHARDSON

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at 6:15 o'clock at the parsonage of Grace Methodist church, Rev. J. D. Bundy, the pastor, officiating, when Mrs. M. E. Richardson became the bride of Mr. Chas. R. Sugg.

The wedding was witnessed by only a few intimate friends of the bride and groom and after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sugg left on an evening train for a bridal tour to New York and possibly Niagara Falls, Washington and other points.

The bride is a native of Wadesboro, but has made her home in Wilmington for the past seven years. She is a charming young woman and is held in the highest admiration and esteem by a large circle of friends.

Mr. Sugg is a native of Greenville, N. C., but has lived here for more than six years. He is chief electrical engineer in the motive power department of the A. C. L., and is popular here and all over the A. C. L. system.

Mr. and Mrs. Sugg will return in a week or ten days, and after July 1st will be at home in their new residence at Carolina Heights, now under construction.

TARVIA DISTRIBUTOR HERE.

Pressure Machine Arrived Yesterday. Work to Begin at Once.

The 1,000-gallon Pierce Arrow, automobile pressure distributor, sent here by the Barrett Manufacturing Company to distribute the large order of Tarvia recently placed by the County Commissioners, arrived yesterday, and the company's crew of men, sent here from Philadelphia, completed unloading the equipment last night.

The first shipment of the Tarvia is expected to arrive today, and the work of distributing it on the county roads will begin at once, under the supervision of Mr. W. A. McGirt, chairman of the board, and Mr. R. A. Burnett, county superintendent of roads.

Sold Him Vinegar Instead.

Charged with selling a half pint of vinegar which he claimed was the "real stuff," Willie Canady, colored, was before the Recorder yesterday on a charge of larceny by trick. The Recorder, however, found that there is no law prohibiting a man from selling vinegar as the "real stuff" and discharged with negro. May Clifford, white, who was arrested several weeks ago on a charge of selling whiskey, was fined $25 and the costs. An earlier trial was prevented on account of her illness. Lucille Garrison and Maude Adams, both white women, were tried on a charge of vagrancy. The cases were noi prossed with leave. The case against Leonard Sterne, white, charged with blackmail, was continued until tomorrow on account of the absence of the defendant's attorney.

MALARIA WELL CONTROLLED

Map at Health Department Shows Results of Efforts Covering Last Three and One-Half Years.

Embodying the results of a period of study of the malaria problem in Wilmington, with reference to the location of cases, extending over a period covering the past three and one-half years, a new map has been prepared at the health department which shows the location of every reported case of malaria since September 1st, 1911, and also the improperly and imperfectly drained sections of the city.

The grouping of the cases shows strikingly and clearly the influence of improper drainage in the transmission of this disease. In the improperly drained areas small pools of water and stagnant places in the ditches, which are covered with grass and weeds, afford opportunities for the breeding of the Anophelese mosquito, through whose bite malaria is transmitted.

The efforts that have been made by the health department to control the spread of malaria during the past four years have been directed chiefly to securing drainage of low-lying places and places where water accumulates. In addition the screening of houses has been urged and encouraged; the screening of all cases of malaria has been required; the sanitary police have been instructed especially with reference to the destruction of discarded vessels which might contain water in which mosquitoes could breed, roof gutters have also received especial attention and the public has been advised and urged to use prophylactic doses of quinine.

Also, all pools of water and sand traps to street drains have been oiled with a special preparation for the purpose during the past two summers at intervals of from 10 to 15 days.

The results of this work, as shown by the records of the department, have been very gratifying. In the four months in 1911, September 1st to December 31st, shown on the map, 79 cases of malaria were reported. During the year of 1912, in all 122 cases of malaria were reported, and in 1913 a total of 44 cases. The year of 1914 shows 54 cases reported, and for the first five months of this year, but six cases of malaria have been reported.

It is the intention of the health department to continue the efforts for the control of malaria along the same lines that have proven so efficacious during the past three and a half years with the hope of ultimately practically eradicating malaria in Wilmington.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The Hill Directory Company, of Richmond, Va., has advised the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce that the new directory will be ready for delivery to subscribers on June 7th. A new feature of the directory will be the street guide, which will prove of great usefulness to subscribers.

—In a letter to the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, Mr. W. H. Tayloe, passenger traffic manager of the Southern Railway, has agreed to give Wilmington more prominence on the folder maps of this road. He says that he will be glad to co-operate in every way possible to give such publicity to Wilmington as can be done consistently.

—Justice Harriss has left judgment open until today in a case in which Mr. T. H. Wright and A. G. Ricaud, Esq., are charged with engaging in an affray on Princess street between Front and Second. The two men had a dispute over a business matter and came to blows. They were placed under arrest by Constable Davis, who happened to be near them, and parted them before either was hurt.

VETERANS HAVE GREAT TIME

Capt. J. A. Williams, of Southport, Talks Interestingly of Richmond Confederate Reunion.

Capt. J. A. Williams, of Southport, was in Wilmington yesterday en route home from the Confederate Reunion in Richmond, Va. He says that Richmond is entertaining the veterans on a royal scale and is giving them the time of their lives. He enjoyed every minute of his stay in the capital of the Confederacy, where thousands of Lee's and Jackson's men met and recalled the historic days of the War Between the States.

Captain Williams has just passed the 71st milestone of an eventful life but is yet hale and hearty enough to know how to enjoy life. He was a member of Company G, Third North Carolina Cavalry, and carried to Richmond on his trip to the Reunion a war time leave of absence for 27 days, which was issued by the dashing Gen. W. H. F. Lee, son of Gen. Robert E. Lee.

Captain Williams got a leave of absence on January 30, 1865, to come home to get a horse but when he reached Wilmington the Federals had captured Fort Fisher and had occupied this city. He was made a prisoner by the Federals and consequently could not return to the service in Virginia.

Since the war, Captain Williams has been a Cape Fear pilot, and is still in active service. He knows the ocean lanes and the bar and the river channel as if he had charted them himself and probably there is no man living who is better acquainted with the port and the commercial history of Wilmington. He recalls the good old time and says he remembers that at one time 60 square rigged ships stood in the harbor in this port in addition to barks, barkengines, brigs, brigantines, schooners and sloops.

The days of sailing vessels were great, he says, and he believes the old times were better than these days of still steam ships which probably carry as much as 20 square riggers in the days when Wilmington was the world's greatest naval stores port.

DAIRY EXPERT COMING.

Mr. Stanley Combs, of Agricultural Department, Will Meet Farmers.

In response to a request from Mr. J. P. Herring, county farm demonstrator, and a number of farmers and others who are interested in establishing a co-operative creamery in New Hanover county, Mr. Stanley Combs, assistant to Mr. Alvin J. Reed, in charge of the dairying department of the North Carolina Agricultural Department, will be in Wilmington tomorrow to confer with those interested in the project.

It is possible that a public meeting will be held later in the week at which Mr. Combs will make an address. He will be at the Hotel Wilmington and it is hoped that all those interested will meet him. He is an expert in dairying and will no doubt be able to give many helpful suggestions.

ORCHESTRA AT OCEANIC.

Prof. Levin and Three Other Musicians Come Today for Season.

Professor Levin and three other skilled musicians, of Raleigh, will arrive today and will spend the season at the Oceanic Hotel at Wrightsville Beach. This is said to be an orchestra that is first class in every respect and one that will merit the approval of the guests at this popular hostelry. They will play exclusively at the Oceanic, giving concerts during the day and also at night.

Mr. J. E. Clayton, the manager, has everything in readiness for the formal opening of the summer season and there are already a number of guests at the hotel.

GOLD DUST
—it actually works at hundreds of tasks daily

"Let the Gold Dust Twins do your work" is much more than a popular phrase. It is based on truth, an actuality, for Gold Dust really works.

The millions of women who use it for dishwashing and scrubbing know this. But Gold Dust should be used for cleaning and brightening everything. It is the only washing and cleaning powder needed in any home.

The small quantity required is quickly taken up by hot or cold, hard or soft water—forming a perfect cleaning solution. The valuable antiseptic cleansing agent it contains helps to make things sanitarily clean, as well as bright and new-looking.

REACTION FOLLOWS ADVANCE

Early Gains in Cotton Lost But Market Closed Steady About Same as Day Before.

New York, June 2.—Reactions followed an early advance in the cotton market today with the close steady net one point higher to one point lower.

Liverpool futures were lower than due, but the showing in this respect was offset by increased spot sales, and after opening at a decline of 3 points to an advance of 2 points, the market here sold about 5 to 7 points net higher during the first hour. The firmer early ruling of the stock market suggested rather a more optimistic view of political conditions while buyers were also influenced by more numerous complaints of excessive rainfall and grassy fields from eastern belt sections. The advance was checked around 9.78 for October. The summary of the weekly report read more favorably than otherwise, but the failure of this statement to bring in any fresh buying of consequence appeared to be largely responsible for scattered realizing or liquidation by early buyers during the afternoon.

Prices eased back to just about last night's closing figures, with business very quiet during the late trading.

Cotton futures closed steady.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

New York, June 2. — Cotton seed oil ruled generally steady today, liquidating sales in July being absorbed by shorts and refiners with a consequent improvement in the technical position of that delivery. A good proportion of the business was in the way of switching July to September at 25 and 26 points. Final prices were unchanged, with the exception of October, which was two points net higher. Sales, 19,600 bales. The market closed steady. Spot, 6.25@6.40; June, 6.26@6.35; July, 6.38@6.39; August, 6'53@6'55; September, 6.63@6.65; October, 6.64@6.67; November, 6.53@6.58; December, 6.54@6.57; January, 6.55@6.57.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, June 2. — An acute demand was reported today for burlap at high prices. Fancy woolen yarns in steady demand, but worsted staple yarns dull. Cotton goods, quiet, with yarns dull. Embroideries, in fair demand.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Early Advance of Five Points But Market Soon Became Quiet Affair.

New Orleans, June 2.—After an advance of 5 points in the early trading today the cotton market settled down into a small affair. The market will be closed tomorrow because of Confederate Memorial Day. Under the dullness prices fell away, but at their lowest the new crops were at a net decline of 2 to 3 points, while July was not sent under yesterday's close. Final prices of the day were unchanged to 4 points down net.

The large spot trading in Liverpool and bullish weather talk put the market higher around the opening. The weekly weather reports were more favorable than expected.

The political situation was not given much consideration and the trade appeared to find satisfaction in stock market comment to the effect that the worst results of the dispute with Germany, at this time, would be the severing of diplomatic relations.

Cotton futures closing: July 9.09; October 9.45; December 9.62; January 9.72; March 9.93.

Spot cotton steady 7 points up. Middling 9.00. Sales on the spot 400, to arrive 850.

"WHITE WAY" FOR WILSON.

Merchants Association Get Enthusiastically Behind Movement.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., June 2.—The Wilson Merchants' Association is the most enthusiastic organization of the community. Last night at their meeting it was determined to secure the "White Way" if possible and a committee was appointed to go before the board of commissioners and ask for the free current provided the merchants installed the lights. It is estimated that it will take $2,500 to put in the lamps and Wilson will have a "white way" second to none in the State, except in the matter of extent.

ATTENTION IS DIVIDED

Wall Street Closely Watching Development of Relations with Mexico and Germany.

New York, June 2.—Wall Street's attention was quite evenly divided today between this country's relations with Germany and Mexico. The audience granted by President Wilson to the German ambassador and the emphatic declaration to Mexico's warring leaders were almost the only definite developments of an otherwise uneventful session. The financial community was clearly inclined to regard the visit of the German ambassador to the White House as a factor of favorable import. The entire list, including the International group, advanced smartly during the morning on a volume of business far in excess of the preceding day. War shares and other specialties as well as coppers, participated in the rise, which lost much of its enthusiasm later.

The bond market was firm, an exception being St. Louis and Iron Mountain 4s, which fell four points. Total sales of bonds, par value, aggregated $1,568,000. United States bonds unchanged on call.

Increase in Net Although a Decrease in the Gross Revenues.

Baltimore, June 2.—In its statement for April the Atlantic Coast Line was able to show an increase in net of $144,708, although the gross decrease was $290,447. The saving was effected by an economy in operation. The smaller decrease in the gross is said to indicate a much better business in the sections of the South which this road serves. The statement shows as follows:

Operating revenue, $2,977,165, a decrease of $290,447. Expenses and taxes, $2,022,163, decrease, $435,155. Total operating income $955,002, a decrease of $144,708. From July 1 the operating revenues were $26,612,262, a decrease of $4,313,880. Expenses and taxes for same period, $20,546,810, a decrease of $2,424,431. The total operating income was $6,065,454, a decrease of $1,939,249.

NOTICE.

To the Fishermen and Others Interested in the Fishing Industry of North Carolina.

At a meeting of the Fisheries Commission Board, held in Washington, North Carolina, on April 29th and 30th, 1915, a full membership of the Board being present, the following orders were passed:

First.—It was ordered that until January 1st, 1916, for experimental purposes, Ocean pound nets be allowed to extend to 200 yards of the shore, said nets not to be placed within three (3) miles of either side of any inlet and within one (1) mile of either side of Cape Lookout Bight.

Second.—That the fishing of pound nets shall be prohibited in the waters of Albemarle Sound and its tributaries from June 1st until January 1st.

Third.—That no net smaller than 1¼ inch bar before taring shall be fished in the waters of North Carolina, provided that this shall not apply to nets fished exclusively for shrimps and menhaden.

Provided further that skim and cast nets only shall be used for the catching of shrimps in Pender, New Hanover and Brunswick counties.

The following itinerary has been arranged:

Tuesday, June 8th, 1915, Edenton, N. C., from 9 A. M. till 1 P. M., at the Court House.

Wednesday, June 9th, 1915, Manteo, N. C., from 10 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 2:30 P. M. till 5 P. M., at the Court House.

Friday, June 11th, 1915, Morehead City, N. C., from 10 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 2:30 P. M. till 5 P. M., at Red Men's Hall.

Saturday, June 12th, 1915, Wilmington, N. C., from 9 P. M. till 6 P. M., at the Court House.

Any persons desiring to be heard upon any of the above questions are requested to attend at some one of the above named places at times designated.

H. L. GIBBS,
Fisheries Commissioner.

RECEIVE TOO MUCH WHISKEY

E. A. Todd and Ed Stokeley Arrested for Alleged Violation for New "Quart" Shipment Law.

While numerous seizures of whiskey have been made recently by the Wilmington police department, Ed Stokeley, white, who is connected with a store at Seventh and Castle streets, has the honor, if honor it can be called, of being the first Wilmington man to be arrested on a charge of violating the recent act of the General Assembly making it unlawful for a person to receive more than one quart of whiskey from outside the State in any one shipment.

It is understood by the police that that the store, which was in charge of Stokeley, is owned by Elijah A. Todd, who has several times been implicated in whiskey selling charges, and it was stated at the police station yesterday that Todd returned yesterday morning from Virginia. Several valises or grips suspected of containing whiskey were loaded on a truck under the supervision of Mr. Todd at the union station. Policeman M. C. Huggins, in charge of the beat at the station, reported the matter to police headquarters, and later when it was learned that two trunks were being taken to the store Chief of Police Williams and Plainclothesman Leon George followed the delivery wagon.

After one of the trunks had been unloaded and Stokeley had told the driver where to place it. Chief Williams said that he walked in and after making an investigation found that the package contained whiskey. Upon Stokeley's statement that he owned the store he was placed under arrest and carried to the police station where he gave bond in the sum of $150 for his apeparance before the Recorder this morning.

Mack Taylor, colored, was taken along also, and Chief of Police Williams said that the negro declared that the two trunks, said to contain about 15 gallons of whiskey, had been brought from Virginia by Todd. Taylor will be a witness in the case.

The trunks are being kept at the police station and will figure as evidence in the case. The booze is said by the police to be neatly and securely packed and is also said to be a good brand.

A warrant was sworn out against Todd by Plainclothesman D. W. Coleman before Justice George Harriss. Todd in the meantime had gone to his home on Wrightsville Sound and was arrested there yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Cowan. He gave a justified bond in the sum of $250 before Justice Harriss to appear Friday morning to answer to charge of having violated the "quart" law.

Whiskey shipped in drygods boxes, barrels, trunks and other packages have been seized on several occasions by the police but no one was arrested for the reason that there was no evidence to connect anyone with the shipments. The two trunks received yesterday were checked as regular passenger baggage. The smaller trunk is said to contain 72 half pints of whiskey and the larger trunks is supposed to contain twice that quantity.

HANDSOME INVITATIONS SENT OUT FOR BANKERS' MEETING

Arrangements Completed for Taking Party to New York on Steamer.

Handsomely engraved invitations have been sent out by Mr. W. A. Hunt, secretary and treasurer of the North Carolina Bankers' Association, to the nineteenth annual convention, which will be held at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, June 17th, 18th and 19th. Arrangements were completed yesterday with the Clyde Steamship Company for operating a special steamer from Wilmington to New York, on Saturday, June 19th, for the accommodation of the bankers and their friends who wish to visit the metropolis upon the conclusion of the convention.

Mr. T. E. Cooper, president of the association, was notified yesterday by Mr. C. J. Becker that the steamer Comanche, which runs regularly between New York, Charleston and Jacksonville, will stop at Wilmington for the convenience of the bankers who desire to take the trip.

The steamer Comanche is one of the largest and handsomest of the Clyde Line. Arrangements had already been made for taking the trip, but the steamer Seminole was later wrecked and as the Cherokee will be in New York at that time, it was decided by the Clyde Line to have the Comanche call at this port. She has accommodations for several hundred passengers, and as the vessel is being sent here at considerable expense, the regular fare of $12 will be charged. This will include fare, stateroom, meals and all expenses for the trip. No arrangements have been made for the return trip, as doubtless most of the bankers will prefer to return by rail.

President Cooper is sending out circular letters throughout the State and upper South Carolina, calling attention to the trip, and asking the bankers who expect to take the trip to notify him at once whether or not they will go to New York.

result of a conference late today between President Wilson and Miss Mabel Boardman. Because of interruption to communication between Vera Cruz and Mexico City it is understood efforts will be made to get food to the capital from the northern border.

State Department advices today announced the issuance of a Villa decree establishing courts of justice in the Villa territory effective May 24.

The Carranza agency gave out a cablegram from Vera Cruz stating that General Carranza today signed an order allowing the introduction of all supplies into Mexico City and that food was being furnished on request in every locality controlled by Carranza forces. The message also declared that conditions around Vera Cruz and vicinity are better than at any time since the city was occupied; that Tampico had a sufficient supply of food, Mexico City, held by the Villa-Zapata government, was said to be normal so far as health conditions are concerned, though a serious food shortage existed among the poor classes.

Marked Change in Policy.

The statement marks a departure in the United States policy toward Mexico. It was decided on after several meetings of the President and his cabinet and a study of the reports of Duval West, who investigated conditions in Mexico. Foreign nations have been taken into the confidence of the United States and European diplomatists who would express themselves indicated their approval of the plan. In South American circles, it was declared today's statement was a logical development of the mediation conference at Niagara Falls when the United States with Argentina, Brazil and Chile signed a protocol agreeing to recognize the government set up by agreement of the factions.

The statement started a variety of speculations as to what the American government meant by lending "its active moral support to some man or group of men, if such may be found, in an effort to ignore, if they cannot unite, the warring factions of the country."

In high official quarters it was explained that the United States hitherto had maintained neutrality as between the factions, but now was preparing to choose between them or to give its support to those elements in the existing factions which gave most promise of success. An embargo on arms and the cutting off of other means of support in the United States would be put into operation to assist the chosen elements as against those which ignored the American government's demand for peace.

While details of the government's policy are not yet available it was said on good authority that it was intended to restore constitutional government in Mexico after the factions had agreed on their man for provisional president by first according recognition to Vasques Tagle or some of the other members of the cabinet of the late President Madero, entitled to succession under the Mexican laws. The minister so recognized would be expected to appoint to the cabinet the man chosen to head the new government in whose favor he would then resign. Ernesto Madero and Manuel Bonilla also were members of the Madero cabinet, but Vasques Tagle, minister of justice, was the only one who did not present his resignation.

The details of a constitutional succession, however, it is understood, will not be given attention until there is an agreement on the new provisional president and his cabinet. An effort is to be made to get men for the portfolios who represent various branches of Mexican politics, the majority being committed to a government based on liberal principles and pledged to religious freedom and educational reforms.

The effect of the President's statement in Mexican quarters was varied.

General Villa's representative here, Enrique Llorente, promptly issued a statement saying the convention government had tried to put into effect the very ideas set forth by the President and was ready to co-operate with opposing factions. The Carranza agency was silent, but it was predicted that General Carranza would endeavor to demonstrate by a quick campaign on Mexico City that he could dominate all other factions in a military way and thereby command the recognition of foreign governments.

Representatives here of exiled Mexicans driven from their country by the constitutionalists, expressed their approval of the President's plan, but doubted whether Villa and Carranza and Zapata elements could reach an agreement. The possibility of another revolutionary movement to take under its standard the best elements in the Villa and Carranza ranks was discussed.

no guns, it would not be surprising if this would be accepted by the German government, furnishing the basis for the giving of reparation. The four affidavits presented to the State Department by the German embassy alleging that guns were carried by the Lusitania is believed to be the evidence to which the German government referred in its last note. Should it develop that the foreign office had been misinformed German diplomatists said an acknowledgment of the mistake would not be withheld. These affidavits were not made public by either the embassy or the State Department, but the character of the individuals who made them and their testimony is being made the subject of a quiet investigation. Those officials who had seen the statement, however, were confident that they could not be accepted as disproving the testimony given by inspectors whose duty it is to search for guns.

GEORGE CONFERS MANY HONORS ON BIRTHDAY.

List Unusually Long as a Result of the Present War.

London, June 2.—The list of honors conferred on the occasion of the king's birthday, issued tonight, as had been expected in view of the war, was an unusually long one.

The list is headed by the names of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, secretary of state for war, who received the Knighthood of the Garter, and Sir Francis Bertie, ambassador to France, and Sir Kenneth Muir MacKenzie, clerk of the crown. The two last are the only servants of the crown who were raised to the peerage, each having been made a baron.

FLOOD WARNINGS ISSUED.

Carolina Rivers May Overflow as Result of Heavy Rains in State.

Washington, June 2.—Heavy rains from Pennsylvania to North Carolina caused the Weather Bureau tonight to issue flood warnings for the rivers of the Carolinas. A storm off Hatteras and the Virginia coast tonight was moving northeastward, the bureau said.

To Improve Expression As Well As Complexion

No face is really beautiful that lacks expression. Do you realize that continual use of powders and creams tends to spoil pliancy of skin and elasticity of expression? Why not quit cosmetics, use something better, which won't clog the pores or make the skin dry, pasty or oily? Ordinary mercolised wax acts quite differently from any cosmetic. It wonderfully improves any complexion, giving it life and expression. By gradually, harmlessly peeling off the thin veil of surface skin, it brings to view a pure, soft, spotless complexion, delicately beautiful and youthful. Every druggist has this wax; it is seldom more than an ounce is needed. It is spread on nightly like cold cream and washed off mornings. In a week or two the transformation is complete.

Wrinkles do not, of course, enhance the expression. Neither do the pasty things many use to eradicate them. A treatment free from all objection is made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pint witch hazel; use as a wash lotion. This soon removes even the most obstinate wrinkles.

in a thousand ways. The speaker then cited notable instances of the greed and graft that resulted in his own State of Pennsylvania. He told of the contractor who furnished a great public building with chairs and tables measured and paid for by the cubic foot, and the railroad builder who secured in exchange for political service the franchise to use the public streets within the hour that a complacent governor signed the law authorizing the grab.

These conspicuous examples of graft were not only in evidence in township, county and state but found its way in the greater affairs of the nation. Discriminations spread wealth and poverty in their trail with a certainty of aim which always made big business richer and small business poorer. The exploitation of public lands for private profit was common.

These striking illustrations brought into public service men whose minds were only trained in the exact science of accumulating private profits. The young man in school and college looked with horror while his elders turned a deaf ear to the appeals made to the scholar. The young man dreamed of the time when he might answer the call. He took himself and his cause seriously. And so the scholar is the idealist in action.

Inventory of Accomplishment.

"Look at the inventory of his accomplishments in the space of less than a generation! He saw that money wrung from corporate wealth, itself made possible by legislative favor, was used without stint or accounting in the election of every legislative body. Today nearly every State in the Union has a corrupt practice act forbidding the use of money except for certain stipulated purposes in all elections; while the Federal government prohibits every corporation from making a campaign contribution and requires every candidate for either branch of Congress to declare under oath the sources of his campaign fund and the purpose of his expenditure.

"The youth of twenty or thirty years ago saw the legislator plead in the cause of his paying client before the government of which he was the servant ,unashamed because excused by the lax political morals of his time. Now he does so at the risk of disgrace and punishment. Then a few self-constituted guardians of the people's interests met in a back room over a saloon and selected for their dummies in convention assembled, the candidates for city, county and state offices. The individual selection bred responsibility to the individual making the selection. Responsibility bred service and the people's interests were ignored. Now, nearly every state nominates in the direct primary, candidates for every office from ward to state, and the people have only themselves to blame if they choose the servant of individuals to do their work."

Ideals Workable.

"The movement for better working conditions for labor, shorter hours for women in the shops and factories and greater restrictions of child labor, is a plain manifestation of the workability of the ideals of the rising generation of men. Employers' liability legislation, which will protect the worker whose master is no longer the individual with whom he can personally deal, but the aggregation of capital in whose machine the servant's identity is now entirely lost, and workmen's compensation laws which will distribute throughout society the loss incurred in service which heretofore the individual servant has had to bear, are now accepted as orthodox features of the legislation of every state; while a generation ago, before the awakening of the unselfish men of new ideals, their mere proposal was looked upon as evidence of radical, almost socialistic tendencies, which would undermine our institutions."

Equal Opportunity for All.

"The ideals of the youth who studied political and economic conditions a generation ago contemplated free and equal opportunity for all, in politics, in business, in all the social structure. Men were to have justice without regard for the strength and power of those from whom they claimed it. The weak and the small were to get a more equitable share of the wealth which they helped to produce, instead of seeing their labor go to make the strong always more strong and the rich more rich. Men were to win success in every line of life's endeavor upon their merits. Favor, privilege, and wealth were not to be thrown into the scales against the strength, the energy and intellectual power of the young man's ambition to honestly succeed in his private fortunes or to patriotically serve the public weal.

"These ideals have been shown to be workable. That which has been accomplished proves that more may be. The practical and interested young man, now entering upon his life work, will want to know what essential virtues he must possess to bring his ideals to the full realization? He must have the courage to maintain the battle against the odds which idealists must always oppose; he must have the clear vision to see the goal in the distance despite the discouragements of temporary defeat; he must have the strength of purpose to withstand the slanders of the hireling critic who would make the people doubt his sincerity. And he must be willing to fight with the very weapons which he takes from the enemy after every struggle, but he must use them with the single purpose of truly working out his well defined ideals. He must go into practical politics. He must accept public place. Nay, he must seek it. The maxim, 'The office should seek the man,' is very pretty in theory, but it will not work out in practice. While you wait for the office to seek you, it is filled by the men who sought it. The man who is modest, sensitive and diffident had better overcome the handicaps of his nature, before he undertakes to right the wrongs of the world. He may be a reformer, but he will never reform anything until he has become self-confident, unmoved by slander, aggressive."

DERNBURG GIVEN PROTECTION

Ambassadors of Allied Powers Promise Safe Conduct to Europe.

Washington, June 2.—The British, French and Russian embassies here have assured the State Department they will give safe conduct to Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, when he leaves the United States. It has been reported he will go to Norway some time this month.

A few weeks ago when Dr. Dernburg, as a climax to a series of speeches which aroused the resentment of the Washington government justified the sinking of the Lusitania in a public address, there were broad intimations that through the German embassy, he might be invited to leave the country. Soon afterward it was learned he had decided to go voluntarily.

allowed to turn around in this locality, except at the intersection of cross streets. I suggest that automobiles be parked on Market street, in the center of street, between the water front and Second street. It would also be advisable to pass an ordinance requiring all vehicles to stand alongside the curb line, when loading and unloading, instead of backing up to sidewalk and swinging out in the street. Our officers should be empowered to force off the streets all public hacks not making a clean and decent appearance.

Recently, the department has substituted bicycle mounts for the old horse mounts, which will increase the efficiency as well as save some money, besides making it possible to furnish the new territory with an officer in the day time and two at night.

In concluding this report, I wish to thank every man in the department for their loyalty and faithful service during the past year, and to express my personal appreciation of the encouragement and support given us by the Mayor and members of Council during the year, with the further assurance that your body may expect the very best service from each man in the department during the year now before us.

BATTLE AT PRZEMYSL ONE OF MOST STUBBORN AND SANGUINARY KIND

Stars and Bars flag of the Confederacy. Credit for its origin was given to Major Orren Randolph Smith, of Louisburg, N. C., thus settling a controversy of many years standing. Approval was given also to a report on the Confederate Memorial Institute, known as the Battle Abbey. The institute, just opened here, embraces a collection of permanent memorials of the Civil War.

First Tragedy of Reunion.

At Camp Stuart today the first tragedy of the reunion occurred when W. A. Hampton, of Appomattox, Va., dropped dead of apoplexy. Hampton was a Federal veteran, a guest of Appomattox Camp of Confederate Veterans. He was stricken at breakfast and died soon afterward in the camp hospital.

W. N. Brandon, of Little Rock, Ark., was elected president of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans at their convention today. Other officers elected were:

Ernest G. Baldwin, commander of the army of Northern Virginia; Creed Caldwell, commander of the trans-Mississippi department, and Dr. Thomas M. Owens, of Mobile, custodian in chief.

"TIZ" GLADDENS SORE, TIRED FEET

"TIZ" makes sore, burning, tired feet fairly dance with delight. Away go the aches and pains, the corns, callouses, blisters and bunions.

"TIZ" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. No matter how hard you work, how long you dance, how far you walk, or how long you remain on your feet, "TIZ" brings restful foot comfort. "TIZ" is wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, smarting feet. Your feet just tingle for joy; shoes never hurt or seem tight.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" now from any druggist or department store. End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy.
